

& we are all longing
for the brilliant sunshine.
~~we~~ have just got up here after three terrible weeks in London, where you can neither see or breathe, the fog is so dense. As three girls are leaving our picture painted by Edward Hughes & we look - our whole morning in his studio which we hate; but I think it will be good at the end. Ann arrived here yesterday & got the most tremendous reception from the people, a guard of honour, brilliant procession,
