

23174

Dictated at The Cardenas Hotel,
Trinidad, Colorado, April 30, 1915.

Mr. W. E. Bragg,
Superintendent, Department of Sociology,
The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company,
Trinidad, Colorado.

Dear Mr. Bragg:

I am sorry that the engagements I have had this week have made it impossible for me to write you earlier. This is the first day I have been able to touch correspondence. But for this, you would have had a letter from me addressed in care of Mr. Welborn.

I am pleased to know that you enjoyed so much our conversation on Saturday night last, for it was a real pleasure to Mr. McGregor and myself to meet both you and Mr. Morand and to have opportunity for so interesting a talk; and if it proves as profitable to you as it did to us, I am sure there will be great advantage in it.

Please allow me to express the appreciation I feel of the fine spirit in which you are taking up your work. It has always seemed to me that without humility no man can approach any large field of endeavor with hope of accomplishing much, and I congratulate you, therefore, on having the first of all essentials to useful service in the work you have in hand. The field

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 26

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA