Mr. W. C. Brown B.A.,
Barrister,
Tillsonburg, Ontario.

My dear Brown:

I have only opportunity for little more than a hurried line, but I do not wish the day to go by without writing again to thank you for the pleasure of my visit with you at Tillsonburg.

You will need no assurances of its having been in every particular a very great pleasure. The only limitation was the absence of Mrs. Brown. I hope you will tell her that I was more than sorry not to have seen her again. However, when she learns of all the hospitality so cordially extended she will realize that you were more than a host in yourself.

I wish you would convey to all who had to do with the meeting my very sincere thanks for the arrangements as made, and my congratulations on the success of the event. Mr. Robb, Mr. Haydon, and myself, are more than appreciative of the splendid work accomplished on behalf of the Party, as well as of the great kindness shown us on every side.

With warm personal regards,

Believe me, as always my dear Brown.

Yours very sincerely
