

C 55944

a National Park in the region through which the Gatineau River flows and which would be the most valuable of all additions to the Capital and its life. All of these proposals, I might add, are among the recommendations of the Royal Commission appointed in 1913. Without question but for the War many of them would already have been acted upon in part.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA