On Train,

Dear Colonel Warden,

Was very glad indeed to get your letter of the 2nd instant, which has been forwarded to me here. I sincerely appreciate your congratulations and good wishes and send my best thanks.

Public affairs in Canada have been slowly drifting to chaos in the past few years, and particularly of late months. We sincerely hope that when the verdict is rendered this time Canada may once more return to stable Government.

Really I do not know that I can make any suggestion as to a position for you, but you may rest assured that I shall not fail to take advantage of any opportunity which comes my way.

Many Canadians who have been forced to leave Canada are writing me expressing the same desire as yourself to get back.

Will pass on your regards to my brother.

With every good wish, believe me,

Yours very truly,

Lt. Col. John W. Warden,
406 Christian College Ave.,
Columbia, Mo. U.S.A.
