Ottawa, June 24, 1908.

Sir,-

I beg to inform you that application has been made on behalf of Florence Campbell for patent for Lot 10, Con. 9, Campbell, Sale 3341, and affidavits have been furnished as to settlement, but before patent can issue, it will be necessary for you to furnish the usual certificate also as to the performance of settlement duties on this lot.

I might add that, upon further reference to the records, it is observed that Lot 15, Con. 7, Sheguiandah, in the name of Edward Henry Sawers, has been represented to the Department as unfit for farming purposes, and patent has accordingly issued for this lot. It will, therefore, be unnecessary for you to examine it, as requested in letter to you of the 22nd instant.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.
