

Borley, Lohouere & myself. I first heard that the trip was unauthorized when we were going to Rotterdam, on the trip from the camp through Utrecht. It wasn't hard to get a vehicle for a trip. I found out the reason for parking the jeep behind the kitchen on the way to Rotterdam. I didn't know when we left the camp that anything was wrong. I knew I was not doing anything wrong when I found out about the trip being unauthorized. I just continued on to Rotterdam. Lohouere got on the high tension + rotor a <sup>several</sup> days before he was drunk. I had approx <sup>several</sup> drinks in the two sessions, <sup>had</sup> several drinks out ~~see~~ on several previous occasions.

Question by ~~the~~ Court - when I heard about the parking of the vehicle I knew then it was a backdoor trip

Question by J A I wasn't in the room when Lohouere ~~was~~ arranged with Borley about returning the jeep behind the kitchen. When he says that he is wrong. I was gone when we left - Lohouere might have been feeling good that is all
