

we will meet the Full Board, every consideration will be given to the remarks you gentlemen have just made. I have a good deal of sympathy with Mr. Egert, your Vice-President, and all I can say is that if a dog will walk off with a hot soup pot from off the stove, he must be a pretty hungry dog. I thank you, gentlemen, for meeting the Commission here this evening, and as I said before, you can rest assured that every consideration will be given to what you have said.

Meeting here adjourned.
