

TO MY NAME-CHILD.

I.

SOME day soon this rhyming volume, if you learn with proper speed,
Little Louis Sanchez, will be given you to read.
Then shall you discover, that your name was printed down
By the English printers, long before, in London town.

In the great and busy city where the East and West are met,
All the little letters did the English printer set ;
While you thought of nothing, and were still too young to play,
Foreign people thought of you in places far away
