

THE OBJECT of these Competitions is to train the heads and the hands of the boys and girls; to give them broad minds and big hearts; to improve their health by giving them an interest in outdoor life; and to encourage on the part of all British Columbia citizens a stronger and more intelligent interest in Agriculture.

OUR MOTTO: "Better Boys and Girls—Better Crops."