

Defendant before the Court of this District, which is not that of his domicile and where he was served.

CONSIDERING that said exception is well founded and that Petitioners' answer thereto is unfounded,

Doth maintain said exception and dismiss said petition and the writ of injunction issued thereunder, reserving to Petitioners the right to proceed before the proper and competent Court. The whole with costs. 10