

PRAYING, COBBLING AND MAP-MAKING

When William Carey hung up a map of India in his little cobbler's shop and prayed earnestly on behalf of the millions of that great continent, did those prayers of his affect the whole history of India or did they not?