

Timely Books for Teachers

MONTESSORI PRINCIPLES AND METHODS. By
E. P. Culverwell, M.A. $1.25

The Author, who is Professor of Education at the University of Dublin, has made a thorough study of the new system of teaching children and has produced a work which will be quoted as an authority. Illustrated with photographs of the Montessori School and apparatus used there.

INTERNATIONAL POLITY. By Norman Angell 1.25
NET

In "The Great Illusion" this author set the world a-thinking and has been the means of materially hastening the Peace movement. The new volume following the same line of thought is bound to be very much talked about during the next few months and should be in the hands of every one who pretends to keep in touch with current events.

THE COMPANY OF ADVENTURERS. By Isaac
Cowie 2.50

Perhaps the most authentic story of a period of the Hudsons Bay Company's History yet written. Well illustrated with photographs and maps.

IN THE HEART OF OLD CANADA. By Col. Wm.
Wood 1.50

Early periods of Canadian History presented in most attractive form which throws new light on several much discussed problems.
