The Bishop of Toronto and Mrs. Sweatman will receive the members of the Synod at the See House on Wednesday afternoon, the 15th June, from four to half-past six o'clock.

The congregation of St. Alban's Cathedral are cordially invited.

From our last number was accidentally omitted the mention of the dossal curtain which was placed in position on Easter eve, and which was an anonymous gift. It is a great improvement, as it adds dignity to the chancel and modifies the somewhat bare appearance which it had before this addition to its furnishing.

We are requested to inform the congregation that there is much need of new books for the Sunday School Library, the shelves of which have indeed never been sufficiently filled. The gift of two or three books, which can be obtained at a small cost from a well supplied and carefully selected stock at the Church of England Publishing Company (S. P. C. K. Depository), 17 Richmond Street West, by each member of the congregation would improve matters greatly.

Mr. Sexton has arranged to go to England about the 1st of July, to be absent two months. Mr. Kemp would be pleased to hear of anyone who could take the organ during that time. Is there any person in the congregation who would be willing to do so? If not, is there anyone whom any of our members can suggest?

Through the kindness of the following ladies, Mesdames Hall, Cross, Mackenzie, Sweny, Baldwin, Arthurs, the Misses McClure and Pope, St. Alban's is now the possessor of a handsome set of red book-markers.
