A Convincing Argument

In favor of the use of our Embossed Steel Ceilings and wall finish is the acoustic power they contain. This is apparent when you consider that the whole interior of your church re-sembles a metallic lined drum. No ether finish has this advantage—an advantage which enables the speaker to be heard in any part of Another is the durability of a Metal Ceiling, once in position it is practically indestructible, as the settling of the building or the raising of the walls, or a leaky roof cannot affect it.

We manufacture an immense variety of designs suitable for all uses, and in every style of architecture, all of which can be decorated in the most elaborate manner desired.

JUST THE THING FOR SPRAINS AND BRUISES.

Evarts P. O., Medicine Valley, A'lberta, Canada, Nov. 5th, 1904. The Lawrence-Williams Co., Cleveland,

I used Gombault's Caustic Balsam on a mare that injured hind leg so badly that she was unable to rise. I followed your directions, and in three days she was on her feet again and is now as strong as ever. I think it is just the thing for sprains and bruises, as it goes direct to the spot. CHAS. LEIGH.

LAMBS SHOULD BE TRIMMED. Another crop of lambs is now coming, and breeders of natives cannot afford to overlook the docking and castrating process. Every season thousands of untrimmed lambs are sent to market with unsatisfactory results. They are coarse and necky, and as killers invariably get too many of them at one time they take enough off prices to emphasize the fact that they are not desirable. Breeders of natives complain bitterly at superior prices paid for Westerns, ignoring the fact that the latter are prepared to suit killers' needs. Now is the time to use the knife, and it is a process that will show a profit when marketing time comes.

There is a young medical student living in Westport who has decided not to speak to a girl he knows. He was calling on the young woman recently, and during the evening he volunteered to sing. When he had concluded his song he turned to the girl. "I'm thinking of taking voice culture," he said. " Do you know of a good teacher whose charge is reasonable?" "I know the very one for you," she replied. "His name is Taylor. Give me a card and I'll write down his telephone number for you." The young man gave her the card. Next day he' called Taylor up on the telephone. " Is this Mr. Taylor, the vocal teacher?" he asked. "The what?" came over the wire. "The vocal teacher ? " "Naw," was the reply. I don't teach nothin'. I file saws."

THE HACKNEY.

It is not often that one sees so high a tribute paid to Hackneys as carriage horses in America, where the Standardbred is such a favorite, as the following from an authoritative source :

As the value of high-class carriage horses soars upwards in almost a dizzy flight, intelligent horsemen seek strenuously for information as to the means whereby such horses may be produced. In the present excited and possibly inflated status of the market it is a question whether soundness or conformation comes first in the consideration with the

We would certainly not buy a bottle and kill germs in the body without killing give it to you if there was any doubt of results. You want those results; you want to be well and to keep well. And you can't do that—nobody can— knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, horse must have to bring a long price and, granted that at this time, it is a notorious fact that buyers will close their eyes to imperfections and blemishes that would have barred a sale altogether not so very long ago. The wise breeder, however, knows that he must, one year with another, place sound horses on the market or his trade will drop away from him. And not only is this phenomenal demand for good carriage horses rampant in America, but in Britain, France and other foreign countries as well. At the lately held London Hackney Show the Governments of France, Austria, Hungary, Germany and Italy were eager buyers of high-class Hackney stallions. There are two reasons for this, and that the prices paid ranged from $2,500 to $6,000 per stallion proves that they must be cogent. In the first place statistics show that the Hackney is the soundest breed on earth. The percentage of rejections at the London Show after the most rigorous examination was extraordinarily small. Therefore, the best of all certificates of soundness was forthcoming with every horse in the prize list. In the second place the Hackneys swept the show-yard boards in America last fall, and the highest-priced carriage horses bought abroad by English dealers in France, Germany and Italy were the get of Hackney stallions. These facts were not lost sight of by the con-tinental buyers. The party from Hol-land included 25 men. The United States got its quote, Mr. Jordan buying champion McKnoby and Judge Moore a harness pair, the latter costing, it is
