TOO MUCH PARTY TALK IN CANADA

Montreal, June 29 .- "A lot of peopl ask me how long the war is go-ing to last. They want to pin me down to a date. Will it/last three months, six months, one year or ten years? We don't know, and we don't care. This war, will end when somebody's licked. We are not going to be licked." - These were the concluding words of a speech by Lieut. Jean Cenal, o the Alpine Chasseurs, delivered amid enthusiastic applause on the occasion of the luncheon to the "Blue Devils," tendered by the citizens of Montreal. Continuing Lieut. Cenal said that he had been asked to say what he thought of the Canadian people. He thought there was too much discussion about parties. "That is wrong. There is only one party in this

OFFICERS WILL NOT BE COM-PELLED TO REL. NN OVERSEAS month

Ottawa, June 29.---Many officers now on furlough in Canada will not be compelled to return.' By an arrangement recently made, offi-cers home on "compassionate" furlough, are turned over to the Adinte rol h off the strength of the oversea forces. These include men who have been allowed to come home on furlough for domestic reasons designated as "compassionate. Such men will now, instead of being responsible to the overseas organization, be at the disposal o the authorities here. Some will be placed in charge of depot battalions. Some will be put at instructional work. Some may again be sent overseas but all such as are on compassionate leave are for the present struck from the strength of the overseas forces There are quite a number of such there are no more coming.
