China Recapitulates. Washington, Oct. 5, via St. Petersburg. —It is announced official China will accord to Germany demand that the leaders in the assassination of Baron Von Kettler be in answer for their crime. General C. has been instructed to learn the names of the Chinese offenders, and to that the punishment is adequate properly inflicted.

More Chinese Humiliation. Taku, Oct. 5, via Skagway, Oct. 11.—The dowager empress has ordered that an imposing funeral be held in honor of Baron Von Kettler and that a suitable temple be erected to his memory in Peking.

The imperial troops are now after the Boxers and are pressing them hard. Germany will winter 8000 troops in Peking. Russian troops are still fighting in Northern China, where they are capturing many small towns.

It is reported that the allies will demand of China an indemnity of $200,000,000 and that there will be no alternative but to pay it.

Scows Are Cheaper.

Skagway, Oct. 11.—Reports from both Bennett and Whitehorse are that nearly all the freight which had accumulated at these points has been cleared away and that in a few more days there will not be a pound left. Scows are still plentiful and very much cheaper than a few days ago.

Heap Much Whisky.

Skagway, Oct. 11.—United States troops have been sent from here to Haines and will probably go on to Klukwan, where the Indians who are preparing for a big potlach, are rioting, having by some means obtained a large supply of whisky. As the Wrangels and Sitkas are to meet with the Klukwans in a hi-yu time, it is feared that with whisky in abundance, a general massacre may result.

British Columbia Politics.

New Westminster, Oct. 6, via Skagway, Oct. 11.—The Conservatives have nominated Edgar Downey to oppose Auley Morrison.

Good News From Koyukuk.

Victor Virgil Lowry who went from here to the Koyukuk last March and secured a number of claims, two of which are on Gold creek, had some very encouraging news from that country by the last steamer up the river. Lowry left the Koyukuk on August 21st, since which time he is informed that two men who are working a claim adjoining one of his have and knows there will be no doubt about it so far as his vote is concerned. He would vote for McKinley.

T. C. Healy remarked that he was, as a Democrat, one of the finest, and if he was on his native heath next November would take pleasure in casting a weighty ballot marked for McKinley and Roosevelt.

J. F. Levy said that Wm. McKinley had been at the head of affairs during prosperous time and he was in favor of keeping him there. He would vote to that end if he had a chance.

M. F. Madson was likewise of the opinion that McKinley stood for prosperity and his vote would go to Mr. Tarr.

YUKON COUNCIL

Meets and Provides For Punishment of Libelous, Defamatory

The following platform has been adopted by the Yukon Council, and has been approved of by their supporters in the Yukon council, and is now submitted to the electors for their consideration and approval.

TERRITORIAL REFORMS. It is the policy of the Yukon Council to look to the opening of the country to settlement and advancement, and to an organized effort with the object of converting public property as rapidly as possible to the use of the miner and prospector. All public improvements hereafter should be made with a view to permanent utility.

A PROPER POLICY. Generally we favor a broad policy looking to the opening of the country to settlement and advancement, and to an organized effort with the object of converting public property as rapidly as possible to the use of the miner and prospector. All public improvements hereafter should be made with a view to permanent utility.

ROADS AND BRIDGES. Roads should be opened up in advance of the prospectors. Suitable roads and bridges should be constructed at once wherever the requirements of the country demand them. The following roads and bridges should be constructed with all possible speed:

1. A road from Whitehorse to Dawson passing by Selkirk, Black Hills, and Gold Run, 270 miles.
2. A road from Whitehorse to Fortymile with a branch to Sixtymile, 22 miles.
