BLUE MILLS.

Monday, Dec. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Weaver returned recently from Chesapeake Bay.

Our phone factory was not closed on the day of November.

Mr. N. White has leased his farm to Mr. Andrew Booth for three years.

Re-master Simpson is superintending the building of a next little station at the B. & W. crossing here.

SHEATOWN.

Monday, Dec. 4.—I would advise the intrusive correspondent of Sheatown of the 22nd Nov. to wield in the future a more charitable pen in favor of H. Lewis. It is truly absurd and grossly uncharitable for said person to be continually parading before the public a poor specimen as the target of sarcasm, ridicule and jokes, without the slightest shade of common sense.

Mr. Jas. Keyes has completed a new barn and underground stable.

Ere long an important lecture will be given in the Sheatown school house.

Visitors: Miss Puck, Mr. Magnus and wife and Mr. Connelly and lady.

MCINTOSH MILLS.

Monday, Dec. 4.—Mr. T. Graham has a new piano, and plays beautifully.

Horace Birch gave a clarinet solo at the concert in Ballycane hall last Friday.

The Salvation meeting in our hall was largely attended. A number got religion.

The Patrons of Industry should establish themselves in this place and thus fill exorbitant prices.

The storekeepers in this district may soon hire themselves to another clime.

Visitors: Misses Dallis and Chapelle, Messrs. Shaver, Thorpe, O'Neil, Palmer, Couric, Winks, Giffin and Pont.

Miss A. Hickey, F. Deer, L. Graham and C. Spence were visiting at H. Birch's one day last week.

TOLEDO.

SATURDAY, Dec. 2.—Our new post master, Mr. S. Edgar, has taken charge of the new post office in the A. O. U. W.'s hall on College street.

The Presbyterian and Methodist Sabbath schools are practicing for their annual Christmas entertainments to be held in the town hall, from 10 to 12 o'clock on Saturday evening, December 21st and the latter December 25th. A good time is looked for and all are cordially invited.

The lecture given by Rev. Mr. Kite on a missionary life and the costumes of China was a treat to the people of Toledo. Every one present enjoyed it.

The remains of Miss Victoria Chamberlain, sister of Mrs. C. A. McLean, were brought here from Ottawa on Thursday for interment.

The funeral service was preached by Rev. G. H. Porter, M. A. B. D., at the residence of Mr. Geo. Stratton, Jr.

The sorrowing friends have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement.

FAIRFAX.

SATURDAY, Dec. 2.—Misses Maggie Gavin and Mary Lappan are at present visiting friends in Syracuse.

Dan McDonald and Lar Boye spent Sunday in Delta.

Visitors: J. Donovan and wife, at J. Lappan's; T. and W. Boyle, J. Bolger and sister at Mrs. B. Gavin's; Mrs. Bolger and Hopkins at J. Lappan's.

SATURDAY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Jas. Lowman was the guest of Mrs. B. Gavin on Saturday last.

The day passed at J. Bolger's. Sixteen May is very prompt in the fulfillment of his duties about the church.

Messrs. J. Lowman and O. Sullivan passed through on their way to the country, where they intend buying a carload of horses which they will dispatch to New York market.

It is rumored that T. Harden will soon join the army of beneficiaries.

Balls and parties are all the rage at present.

A. E. Siler passed through town this morning.

FORTERVILLE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 1.—A serious accident occurred on Sunday last, when T. P. Freeman was thrown from his rig. He was much bruised about the head and face, but no bones were broken.

Mamie Hamilton is on the sick list. Mrs. Dunn is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hamilton, of Westport.

Miss Katie Murray is visiting her parents, after an absence of two years in Kingston.

James Hamilton, who spent three years in British Columbia, is again in our midst.

A number here have attended the ball held at Westport last week.

Dame rumors reports two weddings in the near future.

Visitors: too numerous to mention.

WEXFORD.

MONDAY, Dec. 4.—Mr. J. Bulger and sister gave a very pleasant party at Orchard Villa last Monday p.m.

Dancing was indulged in to 11 p.m., when a sumptuous tea was served to the guests.

Mr. Jas. Wright and wife celebrated the 16th anniversary of their marriage on Saturday last by giving a party to invited friends.

Miss Flood has left for Gananoque to learn in 8 days (according to the recent American invention) the dress-making business; so, girls, look out for her shingle and come this way to get nice fitting dresses.

Mr. T. Flood has gone to his brother Ed's ranch.

Miss Maggie Leeder is learning the dress-making trade in Athens.

Jas. Ronan was a guest at Mr. Geo. Leeder's last week.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Dec. 4.—The Rev. Mr. Conley, of the Methodist church, notified, standing the inclement weather, that the pulpit of the Caintown church on last Sabbath. The congregation was very small.

The ball held in the hall in Wexford last week was not a great success financially.

Mr. Ed. Andrews has taken into himself a wife and has rented rooms from Mr. Henry Powell, of Caintown.

Mr. William White, of Caintown, has renovated the old house on the Carpenter property, which he recently purchased, and has just completed a very comfortable residence.

Mr. E. J. Wilson has rented a farm from Mr. Eckie Wilson for a period of one year.

S. Wilcock and H. Andrews have rented the new mill owned by George T. Brown in that quarter will now begin.

A Mr. Stephens, of Lyndhurst, who was working for Mr. Ira Andrews, of Caintown, has returned home.

Mr. Stephens was a first class blacksmith. We were very sorry to learn of the death of Dr. McGhie. We were personally acquainted with the doctor, in years gone by, and said gentleman was then very popular in the north county.

A New Trial.

Barrister Level, of Smith's Falls, is in Toronto with the intention of applying for a new trial for Charles Luckey. The Department of Justice at Ottawa will be asked to consider several points in the case. One is that the prisoner was acquitted on the basis of the same evidence at different trials, the first for the murder of his father. The Minister will also be asked to enquire into the homicidal tendencies of the prisoner and if these points have any weight the sentence may be changed to life imprisonment.

A Great Offer.

The Globe of Toronto is offering great inducements in connection with their weekly for 1894. To all subscribers who forward them one dollar by the end of December, they will send The Weekly Globe for 1894, and, in addition, present them with a copy of "Hints for the Million," published by Messrs Rand, McNally & Co., the celebrated publishers of Chicago and New York.

This work is an invaluable book of reference and handy for the household being a compendium of thousands of new and valuable recipes and suggestions on hygiene, medicine, household management, the workshop, laboratory, house, kitchen, garden, stable, etc. The regular selling price is 95c.; it is worth one dollar.

Press Notices.
