International Bible Lesson for To-morrow.

Abstinence for the Sake of Others.
—1. Cor., 10, 23-33.

Golden Text—"Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall."—Cor. 10, 12. "Edify one another."

"To serve the present age, my calling to fulfill: Oh may it all my powers engage, to do my master's will."

Paul, Peter and Jude each declares himself a bond servant, or slave, of Jesus Christ, in contra-distinction to a hired servant or legalist; and every true disciple of Jesus Christ our Lord and King, should be His devoted bond servant in love, and so he is, when fully surrendered to Him by the power of the Holy Spirit. As our Lord took on Himself the form of a servant or slave, tasting death for every man, even the slave's death, the cross, to redeem and save, so we, when living in the same spirit of love—the fruit of the Spirit—should consider ourselves the servants of all men.

With this truth in mind, consider the surroundings of the Corinthian Church, gathered through the ministry of Paul, composed of converted Jews and Gentile Greeks, and to be living witnesses to the Jews zealous of law, and the Greeks zealous of learning and licentious idolatry. As Christians, then and now, we are called on to control and overcome our natural lawless appetites; and we cannot, dare not, do the things we would, lest the truth and honor of God be misrepresented and misunderstood by unbelievers.

Jewish laws about food were very strict, and have been just as devoted in honoring their gods, by consecrating and sacrificing animals, whose flesh was eaten by their priests or sold to the meat shops of the city—verse 25—and thus finding its way into houses where a lover of Christ might be visiting; he is directed how to act in verses 27 and 28, so that God can use him to reach the conscience of his host.

Cardinal Manning said, "For 35 years I have been priest and bishop in London, and now I approach my 80th year, and have learned some lessons, and the fact is this—The chief bar to the working of the Holy Spirit of God in the souls of men and women is intoxicating liquor. I know of no antagonist to the Good Spirit more direct, more subtle, more stealthy, more ubiquitous, than intoxicating drink."

THE BEST FRIENDS OF PE-RU-NA ARE THE MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

When Sickness Comes to the Little Ones
It is the Mother Who Chiefly Suffers.

She suffers even more than the child who happens to be sick.
Her sympathy is deeper than that of any other member of the family.
The mothers look forward with dread to the torrid heat of summer, thinking of their children and the many liabilities to disease that are before them.

Spring and summer are sure to bring ailments, especially among the little folks.

It does not take a mother very long to discover that Peru-na is the best friend she has in times of illness among the children.

The doctors may come and go with their different theories and constant change of remedies.

The doctor of years ago gave entirely different remedies than he does today. Each year finds some change in his prescriptions and in the drugs he relies upon.

A Multitude of Mothers

Have discovered that Peru-na is the stand-by, and that in all the ailments of spring and summer to which the children are subjected, Peru-na is the remedy that will most quickly relieve.

Whether it is spring fever or stomach derangement, whether it is indigestion or bowel disease, a catarrhal congestion of the mucous surfaces is the cause. Peru-na quickly relieves this condition of the mucous membranes. Its operation is prompt, the children do not dislike to take the medicine, it has no deleterious effects in any part of the body. It simply removes the cause of the disagreeable symptoms and restores the health.

Peru-na is not a physic. Peru-na is not a narcotic. Peru-na does not produce any drug habit, however long it may be taken. Peru-na is not a stimulant.

Peru-na is a specific remedy for all catarrhal ailments of winter and summer, acute or chronic.

The mothers all over the United States are the best friends that Peru-na has.

The Mothers Hold Peru-na in High Esteem.

Not only because it has cured them of their various ailments, but because it always rescues the children from the throes and grasp of catarrhal diseases. We have in our files hundreds of testimonials from mothers whose children have been cured by Peru-na. However, the large majority of mothers who use Peru-na, we never hear from.

But we do hear from a great number of mothers who are so overjoyed at some special good they have received from Peru-na that they cannot restrain their enthusiasm. They are anxious to share these benefits with other mothers.

The Benefit Which the Children of the United States Have Received From Peru-na Can Never Be Put Into Words.

The chronic ailments it has prevented, the suffering it has mitigated, will never be fully recorded.

But at least this much can be said that the coming generation owes a great debt to Peru-na, for it is in the tender years of youth that slight ailments are liable to develop into lasting disease, thus blighting the whole career of the individual.

The mothers who are bringing up their children today to believe in Peru-na are doing a great work for humanity. These children brought up to believe in Peru-na from the start, will, when they become heads of families themselves, use Peru-na with unquestioning faith.

Peru-na Protects the Entire Household.

As soon as the value of Peru-na is appreciated by every household, both as a preventive and cure, tens of thousands of lives will be saved, and hundreds of thousands of chronic, lingering cases of catarrh will be prevented.

Mrs. Theresa Rooke, 258 N. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill., Treasurer Ladies' of the Macabees, writes:

"In our home Peru-na is the only medicine we have. Grandmother, mother, father and child, all have used Peru-na. It is our great remedy for catarrh of the stomach and head, colds, and female complaints of which it has cured me. We find it of great value when my husband becomes worn out or catches cold. A couple of doses cure him."

"If the baby has colic, or any stomach disorders, a dose or two cures her. I consider Peru-na finer than any doctor's medicine that I have ever tried, and I know that as long as we have it in the house, we will all be able to keep in good health."—Theresa Rooke.

No Doctor Required.

Mr. Edward Otto, 927 De Soto street, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"I cannot say enough for Peru-na. It has done great work in my family, especially for my oldest boy. We had doctor with three or four different doctors and they did not seem to do him any good."

"We gave up hopes of cure, and so did they, but we pulled him through on Peru-na."

"We had several doctors and they said they could do no more for him so we tried Peru-na as a last resort, and that did the work. Since then we keep it in the house all the time, and no doctor is required."—Edward Otto.

Peru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peru-na has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peru-na is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peru-na does not produce temporary results. Its permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh.

There are a multitude of homes where Peru-na has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peru-na contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

Mr. G. H. Farmer, New Martinsville, W. Va., writes:

"Our little son, Harry, is well and healthy now and we think if we do as you directed us, he will keep his health and grow strong."

"We know that our little son's life was saved by your wonderful medicine, Peru-na, and we shall always praise Peru-na and use it in our family when needed."

"Should we have any more catarrhal trouble in our family, we shall always write to you for treatment."—G. H. Farmer.

Mr. Howard Andrew Sterner, Muddy Creek, Pa., writes:

"I have Peru-na in my house all the time and won't be without it. It is good for children when they take a cold or croup. It cured my baby boy of croup."

"I have introduced Peru-na into six families since I received your last letter, and four have seen relief already."—Howard Andrew Sterner.

Peru-na Should Be Kept In Every Household

Where There Are Little Children.

Peru-na should be kept in the house all the time. Don't wait until the child is sick, then send to a drug store. But, have Peru-na on hand—accept no substitute.

Children are especially liable to acute catarrh. Indeed, most of the affections of childhood are catarrh.

All forms of sore throat, quinsy, croup, hoarseness, laryngitis, etc., are but different phases of catarrh.

Mrs. Amelia Sailer, Menasha, Wis., writes:

"I have used Peru-na for a number of years. It cured me of chronic catarrh which I suffered with from infancy."

"When my three children were born they all had catarrh, but I have given them Peru-na and find it very effective in ridding them of this horrible trouble. I find that it is also good to give them as a tonic and a preventative of colds and colic."

"In fact, I consider it a household blessing. I would not know how to raise my children without it. I am pleased to give it my recommendation."—Amelia Sailer.

NATURE POINTS THE WAY.

The showers that bring forth blossoms and make nature more beautiful often cause untold misery to mankind in whose blood the poisons have accumulated.

When all nature seems to be glad we sometimes experience our greatest ills. The important thing is to make this life while we can—consider each disappointment and ill-fitting as so much experience and as a temporary lesson set for us to learn. When you catch cold—suffer from indigestion or notice the skin breaking out with pimples let this furnish you a warning that the blood is in disorder. Profit by the expert advice of others and quickly drive the poisons from the blood and build up the system with a reliable remedy—such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has stood the test of time and for over a third of a century has sold more largely than any other blood remedy. Thousands attest to its remedial value; witness the testimonials which have been published for the past thirty-eight years.

One year ago I wrote you concerning my daughter, writes Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Pine Grove, Md. "She was very weak and nervous, had no appetite, could not sleep, and was afflicted with headache, backache, and dizziness. I was too weak to go to school, took no interest in anything, was inclined to sleep most of the time. I took her to several physicians who said she was going into consumption. My mother advised us to try Dr. Pierce's medicines, and I wrote to you giving the symptoms and you advised us to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' We did so, giving her three bottles each. My daughter began to improve before the first bottle was gone. When she had taken in all six bottles she seemed to be entirely well."

Irving's Generosity.

The late Sir Henry Irving retained faithful old members of his company long after their services might have been dispensed with if only business considerations prevailed. One of the most touching cases of this character was that of Daddy Howe, who died in Cincinnati some years ago while the company was touring here. At one of the most memorable dinners given to Irving by the members of the profession Daddy Howe arose and, with tears streaming down his face, told how his proposal to retire had been received. At this time he was eighty years old. When Howe learned that the company was to come to America he realized that the expense would be very great and that the minor roles he played could be easily filled over here at a much less cost. As a result of these gloomy reflections he wrote Mr. Irving that he appreciated the situation and would either retire or accept a reduced salary. Not receiving an answer, he brought the matter up at a personal interview.

"Dear me! Ah, yes! Well, I'll let you know presently," was Mr. Irving's evasive reply.

Daddy Howe thought from this that he was undoubtedly doomed to retirement. With trembling fingers he opened a note that came from Mr. Irving the next day and read:

"Of course I expect you to go, and I hope that the increase in your salary will indicate my appreciation and good wishes."

Danton and the Clock.

The clock in the anteroom of the ministry of justice having stopped, a watchmaker took it to pieces and was surprised to find engraved on one of the wheels this inscription: "J. Jean Blanchet, this 22nd Aug., 1792, saw the Sieur Danton profane the emblem of divine kingship by breaking a fleur-de-lis, which so rightly adorned the hand of this clock." The inscription had been hitherto undiscovered. Danton at the time mentioned was minister of justice, and it is known that the clock stood for more than a century in the minister's private room. Presumably he was irritated by watching the fleur-de-lis, which finished off the minute hand, as in many clocks of the eighteenth century, slowly mark fleeting time as he sat at his desk and on the day in question suddenly started up in a temper and broke the emblem off. The hand still shows a mark where it was mended and the fleur-de-lis resplendent. The Jean Blanchet who in his respect for dethroned royalty recorded his indignation at Danton's act is unknown, but he may be supposed to have been the watchmaker who mended the broken hand.—London Telegraph.

Work and Talk.

Generally speaking it is true of women as of men that those who think most say least. Woman's talkativeness is the result of her sedentary occupation. Tailors, shoemakers and weavers—all men who sit close at their work—have, in common with women, not only hypochondriacal fancies, but also a tendency to great talkativeness.—Richter.
