NOBE AND 2 SUBS SOLD

St. John, N.B., Nov. 1.—One of the interesting deals recently consummated in Eastern Canada was announced this morning by Joseph A. Garson, managing director of the New Brunswick Rolling Mills. It includes the purchase of the old cruiser, H.M.C.S. Nobe and two submarines, the CC1 and CC2, now at the drydock in Halifax.

The submarines will be towed here next week, and docked at the rolling mills, where they will be dismantled. It is not yet certain what will be done with the Nobe.

The deal is said to involve a large sum of money.

Frank C. Garson, vice-president of the company, will leave soon for Europe in connection with the deal.

The Nobe and the two submarines have been bought by a private firm and are to be dismantled and the metal sold. The deal is of interest to the people of Victoria, as Esquimalt harbor was the first base of the two submarines after they came into possession of the Dominion in the early days of the war. Since that time, when they were purchased in Seattle by Sir Richard McBride, then Premier of British Columbia, they have been part of the naval establishment of Canada. From Esquimalt the craft were moved to Halifax via the Panama Canal. After being stationed there during the concluding part of the war and since they have now been sold and soon will be no more.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Chicago, Nov. 1.—The Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal church is sending out an appeal to its 4,500,000 Sunday school members to devote their Christmas offerings this year to sending food, clothing, medicine and other relief to the suffering children of Europe. Announcement is made from headquarters in Chicago.

Bishop John L. Nuelson, a member of the International Committee for the Relief of Children, who recently returned to this country from Zurich, Switzerland, says the outlook for the coming winter in the needier sections of Europe is dark. "Those countries before the war could not support their own populations but were depending upon the large imports of provisions," he said. "South Russia, which supplied large sections of Europe with grain is not in a position to support its own populations. These countries have no gold to buy grain from Australia or America. They cannot manufacture goods for export because they have not enough raw material or coal and they have no credit."

"If you draw a line north through the devastated area of Belgium and south through the entire continent and then travel east through Dalmatia, Albania, Montenegro, Slovakia, Macedonia, and Greece into Turkey, and then travel north via Serbia, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Austria, Rumania, South Germany and on through North via, and Estonia into Russia, through Russia to Siberia and south into Asia Minor and Syria, Armenia and Mesopotamia, you will find in that vast territory hardly one child in a thousand which is not under normal either physically, mentally or morally."

Bishop Nuelson added that throughout all the war-torn and famine-stricken sections of Europe the "teachers in the schools find that the children are so undernourished that it is a physical impossibility for many of them to concentrate their attention upon school work for even three hours a day."

BIJOU THEATRE

"ARE YOU LEGALLY MARRIED?"

The photoplay now being run at a local theatre under the above title is one of the most enlightening that has ever been shown on a local screen exposing as it does the chaotic and ridiculous condition of the marital laws of the different states. The story is based on facts brought about by two years of careful research on the part of Miles Dobson, B.A., into the marital and divorce laws in force throughout the United States.

The Supreme Court of the United States, at Washington, D.C., has handed down a decision that makes bigamists of hundreds of thousands of men and women who think themselves lawfully married; it puts the stigma of illegitimacy on more than half a million children, and so confuses property interests that many persons are in possession of property for which they have paid and to which they have no legal title.

The decision is handed down in the case of Haddock vs. Haddock, and is upheld by the Supreme Courts of all of the several states who have tried such cases.

"Are You Legally Married?" is not a sensational film in the ordinary understanding of that word; it is a most dignified and artistic effort to acquaint the public with the tragic possibilities of a great abuse. It is admirably acted, intelligently directed and has a heart appeal ever present that draws all who are fortunate enough to see it.

The scenario is by Henry Christie Warnack, whose beautiful creations, "The Honor System" and "The Conqueror," made so great an appeal some time ago. It is the duty of all men and women who are working for stability in the marriage relation to see it, and then, too, your happiness.

DOMINION THEATRE

The picture at the Dominion Theatre is aptly called "Humoresque." It combines all the pathos and laughter that is in Dvorak's famous melody. More than any picture that we remember seeing this season, it is life itself.

"Humoresque" is a Fannie Hurst story, written with all of her deep knowledge of human beings of the ordinary mould. The novel has been transformed with rare sympathy and understanding to the screen. Starting with the boyhood of a youngster in New York's Ghetto, born with two masterful passions in his breast—love for his mother and love for music—the photoplay shows the child later as a youthful genius of the violin entertaining royalty and giving a huge concert in New York for his own people. Then comes the great sorrow that seems to forbid him ever playing a violin again. But in a wonderful manner the clouds are rolled by, and he and his faithful mother are made happy.

You cannot appreciate the appeal to the heart that this simple story makes until you have seen it. Last night's audience was profoundly affected. Alma Rubens, Vera Gordon, Gaston Glass and Dore Davidson in the chief roles are excellently cast. Frank Borzage has directed the film with rare skill. We also show a funny Paramount Mack Sennett comedy.

Not the least enjoyable part of the performance was the special musical programme arranged for this picture. It was delightfully played by the Dominion Theatre Orchestra, which had been increased for this three days' run. The violin rendering of "Humoresque" by Mr. Robertson, was notably well done.

CRICKET IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 1.

(By Canadian Press.)—The resumption this year of the Test cricket matches between the M.C.C. and Australia after a period of eight years, signifies the return of international sporting interest in Australia, which was notably well done.

English team is at present in country—having started their tour last Saturday against West Australia—and during its sojourn in the Antipodes will play no less than twenty-six matches, according to its schedule, before sailing for home on March 10th. The players will have the chance of getting into form before they commence the Test series on December 17, having nine state matches to play in the meantime. Other dates set for the Test matches are December 31, January 14, February 11 and February 25.

Comment is rife among sport critics here as to whether the English side is really as strong as that which last visited this country in 1911-12. Of the team, it is pointed out by J.W.H.T., "Alphabet" Douglas, Hobbs, Rhodes, Wooley, Hoarne and Strudwick are as good if not better than they were then, but two bowlers of the present side, Parkin and Howell, are not considered the equals of F.R. Foster and Barnes, either with the ball, bat or in the field. Others on the English side include Russell, Makepeace, V.W.C. Jupp, E.R. Wilson, Waddington, P.C.H. Fender, and Henderson.

In previous Test matches two of the players, Hobbs and Rhodes, have already proved their ability to do great things; the former in his twenty-seven innings against Australia has scored 1,320 runs, with an average of 55.00, while Rhodes in fifty-five innings in Test matches has been fourteen times not out, scored 1,397 runs, with an average of 34.07, and taken 97 wickets at 23.28. Thus Rhodes only requires three wickets to complete his 100 in these games. If he gets these, which is highly probable, he will enjoy the unique distinction of being the first English player to make over 1000 runs and capture 100 wickets in Test matches against Australia.

Exactly what the strength of the Australian eleven will be is speculative at present, and will not be known until it has been tried in the first Test Match. The probable line up, according to an expert opinion, will be: H. Carter, still believed to be the best wicket keeper in this country; W. Bardsley, C. Kellaway, C.G. Macartney, W.W. Armstrong, V. S. Ranford, J.M. Gregory, C.G. Pellow, C.B. Willis, J.M. Taylor and H.L. Collins. Should he have sufficiently recovered from his wounds, R. J. Hassie will no doubt take the place of Taylor. It is fairly certain, at any rate, the claims of all the above will be carefully considered, and unless some of the young players that have never previously appeared in a Test match get a chance this year the Australian side for the first game is not likely to differ very much from the above.

While forecasting a victory for color and thickness.

Stop Work & Lay Up' advised Doctor but Zam-Buk put me right

Says M. J. E. ARSENAULT, J.P.

Zam-Buk with its high standard of soothing, healing, and antiseptic power is well described as a silver shoe remedy. Zam-Buk's pure herbal essence applied to a wound or sore will cleanse, soothe and avert infection, inflammation and irritation. Other virtues contained in Zam-Buk stimulate the cells so that new healthy tissue is speedily formed. Burns, ulcers, abscesses, festering sores, blood poisoning, cold sores, chronic wounds, ringworm, etc. are healed and cured in this way. Invaluable for cuts, burns, scalds, and all injuries, and in the treatment of piles. Every home needs Zam-Buk.

RELATING how Zam-Buk made short work of a dreadful outbreak of leg sores, Mr. J. E. Arsenaault, a well-known Justice of the Peace of Wellington, P.E.I., says:—"I slipped and gashed my leg on the edge of a freight truck. The wound, instead of healing, became ulcerated, and later on, a form of eczema developed which spread rapidly over both legs. My limbs were so swollen and sore that I had to keep them in bandages and the doctor said I would have to stop work and lay up. As a busy man I couldn't afford time for this. Then I started out to try all the salves, liniments and lotions I heard of. This got steadily worse until the lucky day I hit upon Zam-Buk. Greatly to my delight, the first dressing relieved the pain and irritation, and as I continued with the balm my sores got better and better every day. I soon realized that in Zam-Buk I had at last got hold of a real cure and it only needed perseverance to put me right. It is now a considerable time since Zam-Buk healed the sores but there has been no return of the eczema nor any trace of it. It would have been impossible, I think, to have found a worse case of sores than mine."
