BRITAIN GAINS. Cheaper Living Gives Her an Immense Leverage. I often wonder that the writers and speakers who are struggling to save Britain from fiscal relapse and ruin do not dwell more on the vast number of people from the United States and the overseas Dominions who carry their fortunes, large and small, to Britain because their dollar goes so much further there. This perpetual reinforcement to her revenues cannot be measured, but an approximate guess might be made if someone would try to ascertain the number of large London residences and country places bought or leased by wealthy immigrants, and the number of poorer immigrants living on their means in a few favorite residential towns.

CENTRAL Y. M. C. A. The feature of to-morrow's programme will be the addresses by Mohammed Ali, of Lahore, India, at 4.15 and 8.30 p. m., in Association Hall. Mr. Ali has appeared before large audiences in American cities and is most highly recommended by the press and prominent Christian workers. Association Hall should be filled twice to hear him to-morrow.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. The Sunday meeting will be held as usual at 4.15. The speaker will be Mrs. Strachan, and the subject "A New Tongue." All young girls are invited. Tea will be served at the close.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. The North-end Branch will be open as usual on Monday evening. Miss Ward will take the physical work.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. A delightful evening was spent on Friday evening when a number of the employees of the Hamilton Cottox Co. were entertained by the secretary and social committee of the Y. W. C. A. Games were played in which all joined. Everyone finds a warm welcome and enjoys a good laugh at the social evenings given at the Y. W. C. A. Refreshments were served at the close and all joined in singing "God Be With Us Till We Meet Again" with the hope that in the near future there would be a building large enough to have many larger gatherings of this kind.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. The Doctor—Professor, do you know anything about political economy? The Professor—I know just enough about economy to keep out of politics.

SPANISH WOMEN. Most of the women walking wore the mantilla, which, as some one says, adds interest to the ugliest face, and makes a Madonna out of every pretty one. Those who drive wear Parisian hats. But no one wears a hat to a bull fight, always the mantilla. And to the gala bull fights a white mantilla. Once a year, on Good Friday, every woman, even the Queen, wears the mantilla as she walks to church. They told us that
