Have Murder Ey The Throat

Mr. David Lloyd George in his address at the Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guildhall, discussed briefly and pointedly various problems with which the Government is dealing.

With regard to Germany he declared himself personally pleased with the proposals of that country for the liquidation of her obligations. Coincidentally the Chancellor of the Exchequer Austen Chamberlain, announced in the House of Commons that Germany had placed a large amount of bonds in the hands of the reparations commission.

The Premier spoke optimistically of Ireland, intimating that the situation there was well in hand.

Referring to questions between Germany and the Allies Mr. Lloyd George said that the real test of German sincerity was disarmament, and he added "the report I have to give on that subject is very satisfactory."

"The German army is rapidly being reduced to 100,000. There are still too many rifles at large in Germany, but they are a greater menace to Germany's internal peace than to Germany's neighbors.

Another important point, said the Premier, was reparations. "Germany is prepared to submit certain proposals for the liquidation of her obligations," he continued, "and personally I am pleased with them. They will be considered at the conference and it is satisfactory to note that Germany realizes that her first duty is to repair the devastation the German crimes wrought.

"I wish I could speak as hopefully of the Russian problem where we have to do with men professing the ridiculous, crazy creed of Bolshevism who unfortunately fail to realize how important it is they should respect their obligations."

He referred briefly to the industrial situation and the recent coal strike expressing the belief that there is better temper now all around.

Speaking of the Irish situation, the Premier said:

"Unless I am mistaken by the steps we have taken we have murdered by the throat. Do not pay too much attention to detailed accounts of disturbances and what they call the horrors of reprisals given out by partisans who slur over the horrors of murder. There will be no real peace, no reconciliation until this murder conspiracy is scattered.

"We are getting the right sort of men and are dispelling the terrorists. The Government will use further powers, if necessary to deal with the situation. If it is war, as the terrorists say, then they cannot complain if the Government employs some of the rules of war against them."

He referred to his offer to discuss any proposals with anyone able to speak in behalf of Ireland, saying:

"If I had given that invitation to Germany in the middle of the war I would have had a response. But giving it to Ireland, no man dare respond because they are intimidated. You must break the terror before you can get peace.

"What the Government is offering Ireland, its partnership in the greatest empire the world has ever known at the height of its power."

Go Easy, Judge

Judge—Have you any excuse to offer before I fine you for speeding?

Victim—Yes, your honor. It's like this; I heard that there was a cook out of a job, I had to hurry to get her before someone else beat me to it.

Sugar Now 13 Cents

There has been war open and secret, in Montreal's sugar camp. It waged from refinery to wholesalers and to retailers. As a result the selling price of granulated sugar was jammed down to 13 cents net to wholesalers. A further result of the fight was that Hudson, Hebert and Co., one of the largest wholesalers, reduced its selling price to retailers to 13 cents. Among the retailers the price was variable in quantity, ranging from 14 cents to 15, 16, 17 and even in some cases 18 cents, but the general price 14 and 17 cents a lb.

United States sugar is now undersold in the Canadian market since it cannot be laid down here to the retailer under 15 cents a pound, after paying exchange, freight and duty.

Hudson, Hebert and Co., are now underselling the Dominion Sugar Company which cut their price to $12.50 less five per cent. to wholesalers, whilst the above firm are selling at 13 cents flat to retailers.

AN AWFUL MARRIAGE One of the small papers published an item lately, which was a weird mix-up of an account of a wedding and an auction notice. The most interesting part of the item follows:

"I Am Having a Terrible Time, I Simply Cannot Sleep"

"PERHAPS it is something you have been eating?" "No, it is not. I am always careful about what I eat, particularly in the evenings."

"Are you often that way?" "Yes, two or three nights a week, and I am getting worse all the time."

"Is it your nerves?" "Yes, I suppose it is, for after any little excitement I am sure to have a sleepless night, and I do not know anything much worse than tossing in bed, unable to sleep."

"Do you have headaches?" "Yes, often, more especially after a restless night."

"Why don't you try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? That is what nearly everybody uses for nervous troubles these days."

"I don't know just why, unless because I have a dread of taking any drug that is strong enough to produce sleep."

"But, my dear, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will not produce sleep in that way. It is only after using it for a time and after the restorative influence is felt by the nerves that you will find yourself sleeping well and naturally.

"So many of my girl friends have told me about using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for sleeplessness, headaches, nervousness and such troubles that I have the greatest confidence in it."

"How does it act?" "It is a restorative, makes the blood rich, feeds the nerves and builds up your system in every way so that the benefits are lasting."

"How long will I have to use it?" "Oh, I suppose two or three months. It takes time, you know, to get exhausted nerves fully restored. It will not be long, though, before you find yourself sleeping well, enjoying your meals and entirely free from headaches."

"Say, I believe I will try it, for I do suffer most terribly when I cannot sleep, and then I am so tired out next day."

She wore one light spring wagon, 2 crates of apples, three racks of hay, and a grindstone of mousetraps.
