number of teachers employed were 544, distributed as follows: King's County, 140; Queen's, 235; Prince, 169. The total number were classified as follows: teachers of the first class, 65; of the second 213; of third 266—a respective gain of 8 and 13 in the first and second classes, and a decrease of 15 in the third. The male teachers numbered 278 and the females

The number of pupils enrolled during the year was 22,292, an increase of 123 over that of 1892. Of this number 12,103 were boys, and 10,189 girls.

The daily average attendance was 12,960, a decrease of 26. While there was a slight decrease in the percentage of attendance, the average was fully up to that of previous years. The greatest falling off was in King's County. The decrease, the report says, was due to the prevalence of measles and scarlet fever in the rural districts. The attendance however
