

THEM STATUARY.

How Jupiter Came to Sacerz.

General H—, who was stationed for many years in Algiers, was quite an original character in his way. He had great natural ability, but he was not so highly educated as he might have been.

The general, as we shall call him, owned a beautiful villa and grounds, and on the occasion we are referring to had determined to give a lawn party to which the Governor and all the higher officers were invited.

The general remembered that there was in one of his regiments a workman named Zepher, who was generally in the guard-house, but who had a wonderful talent for sculpture, he having carved a beautiful monument for the garden of a colonel who had fallen in battle.

"I hear that you are a sculptor. Now I want you to sculpt me a lot of gods and goddesses, Jupiter, Apollo, Venus and all the rest of them, and have them on hand by eight o'clock sharp, next Saturday evening."

"But general, I can't have them done by next Saturday." It will take months by next Saturday." It will take months by next Saturday.

"Keep quiet! How much money do you need to buy plaster of Paris?" Zepher looked at the general, and saw that he was in good earnest; so, after he had studied over the matter, the sculptor replied:

"All right, general, I will do my best. I will want a hundred francs to buy plaster of Paris."

"Here it is. Now get to work right away, and have them statuary by 8 o'clock Saturday night, or you will wish you had never been born. Get 'em up in fine style, particularly Venus."

"But, general, I have never had any experience with female figures. I might not get them right."

"Then go find out how they look, but be sure and have them gods and goddesses on hand at eight sharp, Saturday night."

That was the last the general saw of Zepher for several days, but he heard of him going from one bar-room to another, treating everybody, and having a good time of it generally, so he sent for the artist.

"What is this I hear about you? Instead of sculpting the gods, you are going about filling your hide with wine and raising disturbances."

"General," replied Zepher, humbly, "I am getting along finely. We artists have to get drunk to catch the inspiration. That's the way it is with all great geniuses."

Zepher disappeared, and the delighted general reappeared with the Governor and other guests in the brilliantly lighted garden. To say that they were astonished at the artistic skill displayed, is to use a feeble word. The Governor was lost in admiration, and he candidly stated that he could not boast of anything to compare with it.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has just issued an illustrated treatise, "The Heart of the Continent," describing the wonderful growth of the six Great States.

Seeing is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains. Your Druggist can tell you all about it. Sold by J. Wilson Goderich.

Do not take Pills or Powders containing Calomel, for at this time of the year, the results may be serious. If you require a dose of physic take Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters; it acts gently on the Bowels, purifies the Blood, improves the circulation, stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and speedily cures Biliousness, Headache, Dyspepsia, Indigestion.

As a rule we do not recommend Patent Medicines, but when we know of one that is a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to give it the widest circulation.

After pairing, the ostrich begins to make his nest. It is the male alone that performs this duty. To do this it squats upon the ground, and, balancing itself upon its sternum, it scratches up the earth with its legs and throws the sand behind it.

Simply miraculous is all I can say of the effect of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure in my case. An elderly lady writes this from Antigonish, N. S., who had suffered from pains in the back for twenty years. Sold by J. Wilson Goderich.

A REWARD—One of a dozen "TEABERRY" to any one sending the best four line rhyme on "TEABERRY," the remarkable gem for the Teeth and Breath. Ask your Druggist or address.

DOMINION COUGH BALSAM. The great lung remedy is also a valuable antidote to Croup. Mrs. Quinn, Wellington-st., Bradford, says: "One of my children was seized with an alarming attack of Croup, and the child got black in the face. I was frightened and ran in for my neighbor, Mrs. English, who handed me a bottle of 'Dominion Cough Balsam,' which Mr. English had been using for some time. The first dose gave complete relief, I soon gave another, and very shortly the child was all right and at play. I sent for a bottle to keep in the house. I believe it was the means of saving my child's life."

It made me feel like a "Band of Music," was the rather forcible expression of an individual who was praising "Pectoria," the great remedy for Coughs and Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Bronchitis. It is safe, pleasant and effectual. If you suffer, try it. For sale by all Druggists and general dealers at 25 cents a bottle. For sale by Geo. Rhyms.

As the frosts of winter vanish under the caloric influence of the sun's rays, so does Bright's Disease, Dropsy, stone in the Kidneys and Bladder, and inflammation of the Kidneys, leave the body upon the administration of Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure. Sold by J. Wilson.
