

AROUND THE CITY

LOCALS.

From Tuesday's Bulletin.

The regular weekly meeting of the Strathcona city council will be held this evening. The main questions for discussion will likely be the appointment of a police magistrate and the street railway proposition.

The annual meeting of the Strathcona Curling Club will be held next Wednesday evening in the office of Edmund T. Bain.

Before Magistrate Tipton yesterday, John Nestek, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 and costs. The arrest was made by Officer Harris.

Many friends will bear with regret the death of Mrs. McDonald, wife of Rev. A. McDonald, Leduc, and mother of J. H. McDonald, editor of "The Plaindealer." Miss McDonald, who was 84 years of age, had been undergoing treatment at the Strathcona hospital, and was so much improved that she was taken to her home. She sank again, however, and passed away early Sunday morning.

The funeral takes place Wednesday afternoon. Service will be held at Leduc, and the body will then be brought to Strathcona by the afternoon train and taken to the Baptist church, where another service will take place before burial at Strathcona cemetery.

T. L. Nunn, the east end barber, has moved to the offices of Frank Harris, next the Imperial Bank.

H. H. Crawford and E. Harrison have grown some big potatoes in their gardens this year. Mr. Crawford has one measuring 21 in. x 13-1/2 in. and Mr. Harrison one 21 in. x 12 in.

From Wednesday's Bulletin.

Arthur Stewart, manager of the Winnipeg branch of the National Trust Company, Limited, is at present in the city.

Work on the foundation of the power house for the incline railway is going rapidly ahead, and the rails to be used on the railway have also arrived.

A very pleasant little dance was given in the Mechanic's Hall last evening by Messrs. Crummy and McDougall. About 35 couples attended.

A party comprising A. Ogilvie, G. Maudie, W. Harvey and W. L. Breden went out duck shooting last week and 64 ducks were bagged.

The Y. M. C. A. building is nearing completion. The two top storeys have been lathed and the plasterers will begin work today.

The second set of iron girders at the new Postoffice building have been placed in position. The work is being pushed ahead rapidly.

The luncheon of the Canadian Club will be resumed next Monday, when it is expected Senator Cox will be in the city, and he will be asked to address the club.

The monthly report from the meteorological station for September is as follows: Mean temperature, 54.1; precipitation, 1.32 inches; hours of bright sunshine, 170.1; lowest temperature, 7 degrees of frost, on the 28th.

Rudyard Kipling, the author of the English literature, who is coming west may visit Edmonton. In the event of his expressing his intention to see this city, he will be invited by the Canadian Club to give an address at a luncheon of the club.

Edmonton bank clearings for the week ending today total $76,222.70.

Miss L. C. McKinney and Miss Agnes Amundson of Clearholm are visiting in the city.

The Philadelphia Lunch Counter is opening at the store formerly occupied by the Sugar Bowl on Jasper avenue.

At the office of the building inspector this morning E. W. Organ took out a permit for a $2,500 house on Morris street.

The meeting of the directors of the poultry show, which was to have been held last night, was postponed to Oct. 15th.

The Edmonton branch of the Ladies of the Macabees gave a pleasant little dance in the Mechanics hall last night. About 50 couples were present.

The young men's club of McDougall church are having their first social evening of the season tonight in the parlors of the church at eight o'clock. All men are invited to be present.

Mr. Burt, of the Edmonton Express Company, whose only son recently died at Calgary while enroute for Edmonton, desires to thank friends and acquaintances for their kindness and sympathy.

Rebekah Bishop and a party of sportsmen returned last night from a shooting expedition to the near north. There was some good duck shooting, and the party had an enjoyable outing.

James Gibbons has just returned from a three weeks' visit to Winnipeg. Mr. Gibbons has not been in Winnipeg since 1881, but had the good fortune to meet many of his former acquaintances.

Rev. Father Hetu, who has been for some months assistant at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, has left for Pincher Creek with Rev. Father Lamonde, and will be succeeded by Rev. Father Schutte.

Secretary Harrison, of the Edmonton board of trade, is in receipt of two letters from big manufacturers, one wanting to know the possibilities in Edmonton for a cereal factory and the other asking information relative to the opportunities for a soap plant.

The restaurants conducted by the Sugar Bowl people, opposite the postoffice on Macdonnell avenue and on Jasper avenue were closed quietly on Saturday evening and the proprietors have since been indefinitely sought after by a number of interested persons.

The extensive alterations in the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which will cost about $15,000, are being pushed ahead as rapidly as possible. When the building is complete the present fittings will be cast aside and an entirely new set will be furnished.

Methodist church at Toronto.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, of Poplar Lake, who has been a student of the Edmonton High School for the past three years, has gone to Toronto where she will attend McMaster University.

The further consideration of the application to annex the Yale village will come up tomorrow morning before Mr. Ducey and the council, and will be taken up by both parties to the application will then be given out.

Mr. H. Bowen has leased his beautiful residence on the corner of Eighth and McKay avenue to Hon. C. W. Cross, attorney-general for Alberta.

Mr. Bowen has no intention of leaving the city, as he has just returned from a trip to the coast, and is assured that Edmonton is the best place for him.

The Provincial Board of Health has been in session for the last few days and the principal point under discussion has been the disposal of sewage of Edmonton and Strathcona.

The board visited the different points of disposal with the mayor and aldermen of each municipality and showed them that it was a mistaken idea that the cost of installing an adequate system of disposal would be too large.

The new large frame building erected by Messrs. McDonald, Bloney and Wainland on Queen's avenue on the old Kelly & Beale site, is already occupied by business firms. The north half is the central auction hall of Summers, Zeplyn & Johnson, the auctioneers. In the other side is a grocery and general provision business belonging to Henry Wilson, late of the market scales, who has recently purchased five or six months ago for something in the neighborhood of $35,000.

The express goods came over by the Empress of Ireland via Montreal and the letter by the Lusitania via New York. Both steamers left the same day.

ASSESSMENT TEST CASE.

An interesting test case with reference to the collection of the licenses for feed and feed stable keepers, came on at the Police Court before Magistrate Cowan on Monday morning.

The defendants are Messrs. Larose and Ross, feed and feed stable keepers. They are now assessed for 1,000 feet floor space as a licensed stable and pay assessed the amount of $12.50 in that connection. They are also taxed $50 as a license fee for feed stable and they contend they are not liable to pay the same.

The cases are being conducted by J. R. Boyle, M. P. P., and a judgment will be put up by the defendants.

MAGISTRATE FOR STRATHCONA.

At a special meeting of the Strathcona City Council this forenoon the street railway franchise to the Strathcona Railway Company was further considered.

The name of George F. Downes was also recommended to the Attorney-General's department as a suitable person for Magistrate of the city.

DEATH OF CARSON LATIMER.

The death occurred on Friday at Poplar Lake of Carson Latimer, aged 85. The doctor who attended him was taken ill with appendicitis while at work on road construction north of Meriville and was removed to his home where he died.

The funeral which took place from the family residence on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Christ church cemetery, was perhaps the largest ever held in the district, over 100 carriages being in the cortege, which was nearly a mile long.

The late Mr. Latimer came to Poplar Lake 14 years ago. He was a successful farmer and his 220 acre farm was one of the best in the district. He was in his 80th year, and in religion an Anglican. He was a member of the Orange order. He leaves a wife and eight children, the eldest, Alfred, Bertha, Howard, Mildred, Matilda, John and Eva. David and Wm. Latimer, of Edmonton, are brothers and Mrs. Cummings, Poplar Lake, is a sister.

Rev. Mr. Wilkinson conducted the funeral services and the pall bearers were Rev. Taylor, J. Flanders, H. Rowsewell, R. Bell, Mr. McDonald and J. Ferguson.

The sympathy of the community is expressed by the family in their bereavement.

STRIKE IN COAL MINE.

From Wednesday's Bulletin.

Another strike took place yesterday in the Strathcona mine and the men are out again. The mine is now run by a contractor and it was with him the men disagreed over the wages that were to be paid. A waterman was receiving $2 a day and the others thought they were entitled to more money. The difficulty will likely be settled shortly.
