COVENTRY PATMORE born 1823.
A much appreciated poet of the Victorian era, whose "Angel in the House" ranks deservedly high among modern poetic achievements.

GENERAL GRANT died 1885, aged 63. The most distinguished American General of the Civil War. Became President of U.S.A. in 1869 and was re-elected in 1872.

SIR WILLIAM CREMER died 1908, aged 70. An ardent advocate of International Arbitration and founder of the Inter-Parliamentary Union. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1903, which he devoted to the furtherance of the cause with which his name was so long identified.

Foot Passengers.

Pedestrians should be suppressed, all motorists avow; long since they ceased to be a jest, and they're a nuisance now. There's nothing harder on a car than running over men; it gives the works a deadly jar, and wrecks the springs again. This spring I bought a new machine that took most all my pile; I filled its tank with gasoline, to try it for a mile; two neighbors got beneath the wheels—their nerve was cold and raw; what wonder that a driver feels there ought to be a law? It takes all pleasure from the game, it spoils the joyous graft, to find that some wayfarer's frame is wound around a shaft. The walkers say they have a right to alley, street and lane, and just to demonstrate their spite, they let themselves be slain. Pedestrians will go too far; they're claiming now, 'tis said, that every man who runs a car should stop and plant his dead. With jealousy their breasts are filled; since they can't ride in cars, they take delight in being killed, in gaining wounds and scars; by this they're hoping to create a sentiment adverse to this, the pastime of the great—could jealousy do worse? Our legislatures and our courts should shield us from such shocks, should guard the noblest of all sports, and jail the man who walks.

The Whaling Voyage

POOR OUTLOOK.

The whale fishery this year promises to be the worst on record. The catch for the whole fleet so far is 24 fish divided as follows:—

Hump, Puma and Lynx, 6 each; Cabot, 4 and Cachelot, 2. The latter, though having the smallest catch now, is reckoned to be the most successful as she can continue operations later in the season than the others and last year at this time she had neither whale to her credit.

To-Night's Match.

The Stars and C. E. I. will be the contestants in to-night's football game, and the players are as follows:—

C. E. I.—Volsey, goal; L. Stick, Hartley, backs; R. Stick, Drover, Fox, halves; Hunt, Evans, M. Churchill, Ankinleck, E. Churchill, forwards.

STAR.—Phelan goal; Hart, Thompson, backs; Christopher, Vinnicombe, Kavanagh, halves; Phelan, Caul, Brien, Morgan, Power, forwards.

Not His Fault.

A certain shopwalker in one of the large drapery establishments in the West End of London was noted for his severity to those under him.

One day he approached a junior assistant, whose counter a lady had just left.

"You let that lady go without making a purchase?" he asked severely.

"Yes, sir, I—"

"And she was at your counter fully fifteen minutes?"

"Doubtless; but then, you see—"

"Exactly. I saw that, in spite of all the questions she put to you, you scarcely answered her, and never attempted to get what she wanted."

"Well, but—"

"You need not make any excuse. I shall report you for carelessness."

"Well, I hadn't what she wanted."

"What was that?"

"Six shillings. She's a book canvasser, selling 'The Life of Napoleon the Great!'"

The shopwalker retired crestfallen, and the audible titters of all the assistants in the department, who greatly enjoyed his discomfiture.
