Revolt of Lieut. Maritz.

Traitor Left Garrison Taking Away Rifles and Ammunition.

Cape Town, via London, Oct. 24.—The correspondent of the Cape Times at Carnarvon, Cape Colony, describing the recent revolt of Lieut. Maritz, says:

"When Maritz came to Kakamas, in the Cape province, in the capacity of commander of the defence force, he took away all the rifles of the local garrison on the plea that he needed them to arm a force against the Germans. Maritz went away and was returning with a force of 700 Germans and traitors, when the garrison suddenly heard of his approach.

"A party of thirty-eight daring men from the garrison went to his camp in the night and succeeded in getting a supply of rifles, ammunition and horses. Maritz caught up with them thirty miles away. There was a brief fight before the men from the garrison took to the bush, where they played hide and seek for six days before they escaped with the loss of only one man."

See If The Child's Tongue Is Coated

Mother! Don't hesitate! If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit-laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Sensational Two Reel Picture

At The Nickel Theatre To-Day.

The programme at the Nickel Theatre to-day should attract large audiences as it is as good a show as has ever been given at this popular house of amusement. There are no less than six different films. The two-reel film is: "A Cruel Revenge" by the Lubin actors and is an exceptionally strong play with beautiful scenes and costumes. This film was first shown in Philadelphia and was greatly admired. The Nickel was fortunate in getting it here so early. "Peggy's Invitation" is a cleverly acted melodrama in which the well known actress, Marguerite Snow plays the leading character. "The End of the Circle" is a sensational western drama, such as St. John's likes. Then there is a pretty travelogue of Los Angeles showing the most picturesque spots in that charming place. There are two comedies: "Capers of Cupid" by the Vitagraph Co. and "A Mis-Placed Foot" by the Keystone Co. Mr. Arthur C. Huskins will sing "Bonnie Mary of Argyll" this evening for the first time. It is a delightful number which has given satisfaction to all. Those who have not yet heard him should attend. The whole show is one of excellence; do not miss it.

Had Abscess 9 Years.

Mrs. Herbert Cox, of Port McNichol, Ont., writes: "For nine years I suffered with an abscess on my face. I was under medical treatment most of the time and had the abscess lanced repeatedly. I also tried several ointments and salves, but without satisfactory results. Finally the doctor told me I had a tumor on the bone and would have to undergo an operation. I did so and they scraped the bone, but instead of healing, the wound became even worse than before. By this time I was beginning to despair of ever being cured, when a friend suggested Zam-Buk. I had little faith in it at the time, but agreed to give it a trial. I soon noticed such a marked improvement that I was encouraged to continue. Day by day I got better. The Zam-Buk seemed to go to the very root of the trouble. Bit by bit the sore healed, and Zam-Buk has now completely cured me. It has healed the chronic sore without leaving any trace or any scar."

The above is but one of many instances, nothing that could be cited where Zam-Buk has cured after doctors failed.

For any disease or injury to the skin, nothing can equal Zam-Buk. No matter how deep-seated or protracted the malady, this marvelous ointment will destroy the roots of the disease, and its healing herbal essences will quickly build up new healthy tissue.

If you suffer from eczema, piles, cuts, burns, bruises, abscesses, ulcers, varicose sores, rheumatism, scalds, or any eruption, injury or skin disease, give Zam-Buk a trial. It has cured others, why not you?

At all druggists and stores, or post-paid from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25. Refuse harmful substitutes.

Will Not Retain Isles.

Japan Insists Occupation of German Islands Is Temporary.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The occupation of additional German owned islands in the Pacific by Japanese naval forces is to be regarded in the same light as the seizure of Jaluit Island in the Marshall group by the same forces a few weeks ago, according to statements made at the Japanese Embassy this afternoon.

It was explained that as long as there were any German commerce destroyers operating in the Pacific and Asiatic waters, Japan would be compelled to occupy every German owned port which might serve as a base for the German cruisers.

The seizure of islands in the Ladrone, East Caroline and West Caroline groups, in addition to Jaluit Island, is in fulfillment of this policy and purely for military purposes, according to embassy officials. The statement was reiterated that there is no intention of holding these islands permanently.

Secretary Bryan announced following the occupation of Jaluit Island that he had received assurances from Tokio and from the embassy here that Japan had no intention of retaining the islands permanently. It was then suggested that they would eventually be placed in British hands.

Black Cow Aids Germans.

Points Her Horns to Show Where Danger Lurks.

London, Oct. 22.—The Times says that a favorite sign by which German spies convey information is a black cow, crudely sketched in black crayon on walls, gates and fences. The allies passed this "black cow" by without particular notice for a time, partly because it was so badly drawn. Then it was noticed that it sometimes was small, sometimes large, sometimes standing at other times lying down and often the horns were ridiculously long in comparison with the body of the animal.

Finally a study was made of the strange sign and it was found that a small cow signified that the road was only weakly defended; a moderate sized cow meant that the allies' troops were in the neighborhood; a large cow was a warning that there were earthworks or trenches near by. The direction of the danger was indicated by the direction in which the cow's head was pointed. If the head pointed into the air it meant that the spy considered that the German aviator had better reconnoitre the ground before the troops advanced.

Terry Turner.

Red McGhee says: When Terrance first became a Nap fans used to make him doff his cap to see his whitened top. Compared to field'n' stunts he'd stage his hair seemed to belie his age — 'twas like a cotton crop. O' Time can't seem to work his tricks on Terry. For he's thirty-six an' still plays classy ball. At short an' third an' second base he's given scores o' kids a race an' put it on 'em all.

The stork in Sandy Lake, Pee-Ay, came 'round to Turner's folks one day an' left the bantam kid. As soon as he was twenty-one he hiked to Greenville an' begun to make his baseball bid. The little white-head tore around at short so fast that he was found that year by Pittsburg scouts. He couldn't quite beat Wagner's gait an' so for Cleveland he pulled freight to star in Napland bouts.

The King at second, Tuck at short for years showed Cleveland high-class sport an' gild-edged infield play. His steals were one o' Cleveland's prides. His famous diving, head first slides were thrillers every day. New blood has come in every Spring to notch the end o' Terry's string an' send him to the bush. Short, second, third he's switched about—but young stars can't quite shove him out no matter how they push.
