COUNTY COURT.

McIntyre vs. Hockin & Pool.—An action for wrongful dismissal of plaintiff. The jury returned a verdict of $166.17.

Bake vs. Cattanach.—An action to replevin a horse, the jury gave a verdict for plaintiff with costs of bond.

McPherson vs. Thomas and Joseph Harris.—An action for $375, the price of a threshing machine, the judge gave a verdict for plaintiff for full amount.

Rolling vs. M. C. R.—An action for damages to fencing and trees by fire. Verdict for plaintiff for $55.

Queen vs. Coombs.—Arson by setting fire to his house on 30th of May. Discharged.

Queen vs. C. H. Whiting.—It is unnecessary for us to go into the particulars of this case, as they were fully published at the time of Whiting's arrest, and which are of such a nature as to be not very desirable for publication. All lovers of justice will be pleased to hear that this villian is about to receive his just desserts, he having been convicted on one charge of indecent assault and pleading guilty to three other charges. Yesterday morning Judge Hughes sentenced Whiting to 23 months imprisonment and 50 lashes, 25 to be administered one month after imprisonment and 25 one month before his release. Sentence was suspended on the charge of having carnal knowledge with the girl. On Whiting's left arm is a tatooed wreath and the letters "J. E. M.," which shows that he is sailing under a false name.

A DENIAL.

MR. EDITOR,—I see by the papers, and I believe it is circulated pretty freely, that I as prosecutor against Hewitt and Ward gave my consent, or was bought over, to liberate those swindlers. I deny the charge, and am willing to make affidavit before any Justice of the Peace that I was not even approached in way of settlement, but I have no doubt but some boodle must have changed hands when such a case could be withdrawn from court.
