Toronto, April 8.-Local men interested in the live cattle trade fear a bad season, in consequence of the acbad season, in consequence of the ac-tion of the Imperial Government per-manently prohibiting the importation of live cattle from Canada. They say the basis of the trade will be changed entirely. This will be in the direction of killing on this side, and shipping in the form of dead meats. The returns for the first quarter of 1896 of entries at the western cattle market show that the movement of western cattle is below that of last year in cattle and sheep. The hog trade, how ever, shows a large increase. The fig-ures are as follows:

Woods Badly Injured—His Buggy Completely Demolished - The Horse Breaks Its Leg and Has to Be Shot.

A trolley accident which nearly cost an old man his life and resulted in the death of a valuable horse and the complete demolition of a buggy, occurred at the corner of Dundas and Colborne streets shortly after one o'clock this afternoon.

Benjamin Woods, 72 years of age, and a resident of con. 12, London township, was the driver of the demolished buggy, and how he escaped almost instant death is a mystery. Woods had been in the city all morning, and was on his way home when the accident happened. He was driving northward on Colborne street, in a covered rig, and had just reached the center of the south track on Dundas street when he heard a trolley approaching from the west. He looked out the side of the rig to ascertain the location of the car, and had hardly done so, when car No. 76, bound east, in charge of Motorman Tuke and Conductor Harrison, caught the rig fair in the side. There was a crash of wagon wheels, and shafts, and in an instant Woods was tangled up in the buggy-Some South American cattle sold at top, underneath the car. The brakes tremendous fortune. States chilled beef car stopped within twenty-five feet, car stopped within twenty-five feet, when, with some difficulty, Woods was osses must also be heavy. The South extricated from his perilous position, and the remnants of the buggy cleared from the track and piled on the side of the road.

Woods was taken into Dr. Weekes' office on the corner, where it was found that his nose was broken, his lips and eyebrows badly cut, and he was suffering from internal injuries, the exact nature of which could not be learned. Woods never lost consciousness, and displayed remarkable nerve by having his wounds dressed without taking chloroform.

Strange as it may seem, the horse was freed from the buggy without receiving anything more than a cut on the hind leg. It galloped west on Dundas street, and in passing a rig at the corner of Waterloo it ran into a tie post and broke its right fore leg. It was shortly afterward shot and re-moved to the boneyard. The horse was a valuable one.

The news of the accident spread rapidly, and large crowds gathered on A Telling Exposure by a Conservative Member.

Special Telegram to the "Advertiser." Ottawa, April 9.—Sixty-nine hours of solid talk, and only six clauses considered was the record of the Manitoba bill debate in the House of Commons at 12 o'clock today. This is a record breaker, the longest previous session being in 1885 during the time the Northwest rebellion was going on, and when the Liberals were making resistance against the passing of the Franchise Act. On one occasion during that memorial session the House sat from Thursday to Saturday, or 57 hours in all. Of course, no business was done at that sitting. There never is any business done at such sittings, and Sir John Macdonald arranged that the House should only sit the regular number of hours daily. Sir Charles Tupper was then a member of the House and conversant with the facts. He therefore knows why he has worked so hard to have this experience to wisdom of the Government in forcing grade coal is a comfort. hours. Dr. Sproule, Mr. Wallace, and other Conservatives are determined that Sir Charles Tupper shall not have his way. Mr. Wallace, for instance, left the House at 3 o'clock this morning, and was back at 10 o'clock. Mr. McCarthy did not get to his bed until 9 o'clock, after being on duty all night. Messrs. Wallace, McNeill, Weldon, Tyrwhitt and MacLean were on night duty for opposing Conservatives, and Messrs. McCarthy, Stubbs and O'Brien, another batch of Conservatives, held the fort against the measure until 9 o'clock. On the Liberal side Messrs. Laurier, Cartwright and other leading Liberals waited until nearly 4 o'clock charge this forenoon. Messrs. Davies, Martin and Mulock are also on the Liberal benches. Mr. Daly and Col. Prior were on duty for the Government in the early hours of the morning, and Mr. Ouimet came out about For a long time Dr. Sproule was the only one in the front benches for the Government, and he created some amusement by proceeding to act as leader of the House, while the Liberals asked him certain questions which the Government were supposed to answer. * * * * Sir Charles Tupper was exhausted after his harangue last night, and left for his bed, and has not put in an appearance today. If Tupper dies for the bill, as he promises, he will do so in bed. That much is certain. Those of his followers whom he bulldozes are asked to remain on duty at the boss' good pleasure. Some of those who are doing this were among those while ostensibly opposing the bill, they are doing the bulldozing of the House at Mr. Tupper's dictation. This forenoon, Mr. Stubbs (Conservative) denounced Sir Charles Tupper as one of the conspirators. Mr. Masson's appointment as judge was the chief topic of discussion by Mr. Stubbs and others. It was charged that Mr.

who voted against the bill; so that

Masson had got his office for helping to prevent the defeat of the Govern-Mr. Daly-Such a statement was unheard of as that made.

Mr. Welch—It is true, all the same. Mr. Fraser-Our judges should be men whose character should be beyond even suspicion. Not only did Mr. Masson get a fat office for himself, but he got offices for his relatives. Mr. Tyrwhitt (Conservative), reply-ing to Mr. Henderson, said that while Mr. Masson was voting for the Manitoba bill here, the man who got the Conservative nomination for the riding, which Mr. Masson has deserted, was opposing the bill. That showed Mr. Masson was not in accord with the views of his constituents. The House has now sat continuously for 70 hours, and is still sitting.

New York, April 9.—The Press this morning says that Lieut. Col. Peter Glen, the highest officer next to Ballington Booth in the Volunteers, has deserted and returned to the ranks of the Salvation Army. A letter to Commander Booth-Tucker, from Lieut. Glen is made public. In this letter Glen asserts that he is acting conscientiously in the matter. He says that he is now convinced that Commander and Mrs. Booth are in the wrong.

Major W. H. Cooper, 16 Glouces-ter St., Toronto, says: "I can now eat, sleep, and think better, and feel altogether a different man. Before taking it I had suffered for a long time from severe pains in my back and a feeling of exhaustion upon the slightest exertion, slept badly, and was subject to fits of the "blues." This has all disappeared and I feel like a new man, all of which I attribute to Manley's Celery-Nerve Compound." A NY PARTIES WISHING GOOD DIRT.
