

At Ottawa Intercolonial Telegraphers Ask For More Salary—St. George's Day. Sub-Collector is Appointed For Ladysmith-Rifle Association Grant. Russians are Still Attempting to Shirk Responsibility as to Sealers. From our own correspondent Ottawa, April 23.-St. George's Day was worthily celebrated here today. The local society held a banquet to-night and many distinguished guests night and many distinguished guests were present. Thos. D. Conway has been appointed sub-collector of customs at Ladysmith. A delegation of Intercolonial Railway telegraphers, is here to see Mr. Emerson and secure an increase in wages. The question of the amount to be paid by Ruesia for the seizure of Brit-ish Columbia scaling vessels will not be settled until the Dominion govern-ment hears from St. Petersburg. Rus-sia wants to shirk the responsibility and desires to settle for only two in-stead of six. The Dominion Rifle Association wants an augmented grant from the govern-ment.

ment. All sales of Dominion coal lands in the future will be made subject to a provision that actual settlers shall be entitled to buy at the pit's mouth whatever coal they may require for their own use at $1.75 per ton.

S<text> ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION. St. Petersburg, April 23.-The story that an attempt was made on General Kuropatkin's life by two disguised Japanese while the commander-in-chief was-in New Chwang a few days ago is confirmed. The would-be assassins impersonated Chinese beggars. They wore false queues. One of them reached for a dagger, but was felled to the ground by one of two Cossacks, who always accompany the general.

KUROPATKIN BOASTFUL.

KUROPATKIN BOASTFUL. St. Petersburg, April 23.-The Rus stans have placed guns in positions cov-ering the crossings of the Yalu river. While General Kuropatkin desires that the Japanese shall enter Manchuria, he proposes that they shall pay as dearly as possible for the privilege, but with-out precipitating a general engagement. Major-General Kashtalinsky is anxious to engage the enemy and begged Geu-eral Kurepatkin for permission to do so, but the commander in-chief strictly forbade small skirmishes where it was possible to deliver a decisive battle. In the meantime the cavalry and artillery at the front are engaged in constant drill reconnaissances.
