300 Cords of Wood Burned.

Early yesterday morning a pile of wood ontaining 300 cords belonging to the Northern railway company, caught fire. Nothern raiway company, caught nre. The wood being dry the fire soon spread over the entire pile and all efforts to check it were futile. The 7.50 express from To-ronto was unable to pass and the baggage and passengers were transhipped causing a delay of two hours. At 12 o'clock the entire pile was consumed. The fire is sup-posed to have been caused by a spark from passing engine.
