

about the art of canning. For instance, number of years, to continue in this London.

new duties on June 15.

cles awaits Gen. King and his distin-guished wife, who is a brilliant and cul-

Miss Lillian Shand, of Toronto, arrives in town in June to join the staff of the Victorian Order, to which she has recently been appointed. Miss Shand, who is a graduate of the Toronto University public health course, is taking the place to which Miss Allie Hiles was recently appointed, as Miss Hiles has since found it necessary to send in her resignation. Miss Shand takes over her

. . .

Gen. H. A. Panet and Mrs. Panet

left London at noon yesterday for Toronto, where the former takes over the ommand of Military District No. 2. Officers of the staff, with the regimental fficers and their wives, were at the station, with the R. C. R. band in attendance, to bid their honored general ful good-bye. Gen. and Mrs. Panet and his charming wife a most regret-have taken an apartment in the Alexantheir home for the present.

dra, Toronto, where they will make

Pack, which is an interesting social event of the week. Mrs. E. J. Ludlow,

Michigan, who are with Mrs. W. C.

Certo-that's all.

water bath processing of the cold pack method, that it perfectly sterilized the fruit or vegetable in the jars. Fruits fruit or vegetable in the jack pro- the Anglican Found took and vegetables containing a large pro- tion, of All Saints' Church, which took by the hot water bath method. place on Monday evening, the funds

Whereas vegetables such as corn and peas are much more difficult to preserve sugar in considerable quantities and are president, Dan Boyle. Rev. A. A. Bice, because they contain neither acid nor ordinarily infected with a certain degree of the anaerobic spore-bearing bacteria which, scientists tell us, are able to withstand high temperatures.

Experiments have shown us that vege-tables can be saved from spoilage as easily as fruit if a little acid is added to the water in which they are canned. It was found that peas, beans, asparagus and beets kept perfectly when heated in the Young People's Society, of Knox the jars to 212 degrees Fahrenheit in a Church, took the form of a picnic to brine made by adding 4 ounces of salt Springbank, which was attended by a for every 6 quarts of water; this brine goodly number of members. In addi-was then acidulated by adding to it 5 tion to the delicious eats enjoyed at ounces of lemon juice for every gallon tables placed beyond the loop, baseball Alta., smith of brine. But when the same vegetables and other games were included in the the r were heated in jars in brine of the same program. A picture of all the members June. strength, but containing no lemon juice, present was taken for reproduction in they spoiled. "The Pathfinders," the Presbyterian they spoiled. e popular practice of canning corn paper. The committee in charge conwith tomatoes, is based on the same sisted of the Misses Isabel McLeish, principle; the corn keeps perfectly be-cause the tomatoes supply the neces- Argo and Morris Westland. sary acidity.

Many housekeepers have written me in the past few months to ask why their Final arrangements for their banquet. corn or peas put up last year, spoiled which, taking place on the 5th of June, in the can. So this year I am going to will close the activities for the year. try the following method, instead of the Anglican Young People's Association, of Mr. and Mrs. Hay will act on the reone period cold pack method, which they St. Mark's Church, this week. The so-used last canning season: cial convener, Miss E. Grieve, will have

The Intermittent Cold Pack Method. charge of the eats; Mrs. A. Davies of This is exactly like the one period cold the decorations and toasts, and Miss pack method except that the jar is Lilian Moss of the music. It was an-boiled for a given period on three suc-nounced that E. Webb, Dundas street, ley street. D. Bealer and Miss M. Rogal, at the London district conference. The cessive days, instead of for a long period was kindly loaning his lawn this year of Toronto, were also recent guests with on only one day. Many canning clubs to the young people for tennis. The and private individuals use this inter- following committee was accordingly ap- Lastar. mittent cold pack method as an added pointed to draw up a schedule of games: precaution when canning asparagus, Miss Beatrice Clarke, Miss Eleanor corn, peas, and beans, (both string and Mirehouse and Harry Pearson. It destroys spores in the jars and is the safest method that can be used with these four particular vege-

A splendid talk on "The Lord's Praytables (unless, of course, you use a er," was given by the pastor, Dr. Bowsteam pressure cooker, which admits of a higher temperature than the water bath and which gives the best results of the Baptist Young People's Union, of before returning to town. bath and which gives the best results of the Epworth League of Talbot Street any canning outfit known for these four Baptist Church, this week. It was decided that the regular meetnigs of the From now on, each week, I shall publish cold pack canning directions for all while for July and August they would the common fruits and vegetables as they appear in the home garden, explain-ing the intermittent cold pack method for the 28th of June, with Miss Pearl minutely for the four vegetables men-Blackwell convener of the committee

Packages, 10c, 20c, 40c USE KEATINGS TO PROTECT FURS AGAINST MOTHS." E8n-m,th

a few years ago we did not now that the acid vegetables are less difficul to preserve than those which contain no acid. This is because the antiseptic ac-tion of the acid in the vegetable (or fruit) is so much increased by the tem-perature of the boiling water in the hot water hath processing of the acid in the vegetable (or fruit) is a much increased by the tem-perature of the boiling water in the hot water hath processing of the acid in the vegetable (or fruit) is so much increased by the tem-perature of the boiling water in the hot

Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Mr. and FINAL MEETING OF YEAR. At the final meeting for this year of Mrs. W. A. Marton, and Clarence May, left yesterday for Los Angeles, where the Anglican Young People's Associa- they will attend the international convention of Rotary clubs. . . Mrs. John Taylor has arrived in town which remain in the treasury were al lotted to various charitable purposes from Montreal and is a guest at "Merri-The meeting was presided over by the vale," South London, with Mrs. C. B. Hunt, who entertained informally at rector of the church, gave a short talk the tea hour yesterday in her honor. in which he referred to the success of . . . the past year, and expressed the hope Many London friends regret that he would see all present at the illness has prevented Mrs. B. H. Robinnext meeting in the fall. Games conson, of the Parsonage, Leamington, from visiting here during the Methodist conference, as was intended, and are hopeful of a visit later in the season.

PICNIC CLOSES YEAR. The closing meeting for the year of

PLAN BANQUET.

DR. GREEN ADDRESSES.

Lt.-Col. and Mrs. E. G. Shannon, William street, announce the engage-ment of their daughter, Helen Louise, ment of their diagness, how a Scotia, arrived in Lambeth for the marriage of Smith, N. E. Margaree, Nova Scotia, arrived in Lambeth for the marriage of the marriage to take place early in Miss Alice Carley to William Leith

The Local Council of Women is giving of Toronto, is a guest with Mr. and ing a luncheon at the Hunt Club on Mrs. George Carley, for the wedding, Wednesday, June 7, in honor of Mrs. other out-of-town guests including Mr. Sidney Small, of Toronto, who will af- and Mrs. Alfred Pack, of Toronto, and terwards address the representatives Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, of Allenton. of the London affiliated societies.

. . .

. . .

Leonard Tait, Queen's avenue, left

Pack. Miss Helen McLaren, of Tiver-. . . ton, is a guest with Miss Pearl Mann, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hay, of this in Lambeth, for the wedding. city, will attend the international convention of Kiwanians, which is to take . . .

that

that first stump we found?" "One grub!" Reddy Woodpecker ex-Red, purple and white peonies, iris claimed scornfully. "What's one grub?" "I should think," Cuffy Bear answerand bridal wreath are being used effectively to decorate the tables for ed, "one grub was a good meal for anythe noon-day and evening meals being provided by the ladies of the Centennial "It's not," Reddy declared. He look Oscar and Eugene Lastar, of Detroit, provided by the ladies of the Centennial ed very sullen and glum. Cuffy Bear was sure that Reddy was at the London district conference. The mistaken. He even tried to show following ladies are in charge: Executive committee, Mrs. E. A. Leith (con-

"One ought to be a big meal for you," he insisted. "Why, last week I went vener), Mrs. E. Smale (secretary), Mrs. out for my supper one night and I ate only one. And it was all I wanted." Jack Wilkie, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. R. H. Read, Mrs. A. Russell, Mrs. Jo. Cake: "Then you had already had a big dinner," said Reddy Woodpecker. refreshment booth, Mrs. Fred Staples

"I hadn't had any dinner at all," Cuffy informed him. Reddy Woodpecker stared at him. He Reddy that he was wrong.

200

"I heard you signaling to me Cuffy

"Come on!" Cuffy urged him im-patiently. "Let's get on with our hunt-

But this time Reddy Woodpecker hung

"What! Haven't you had enough grubs?" he asked none too pleasantly. "Enough!" Cuffy repeated. "Why,

I'm only beginning to feel hungry.

These few grubs that I've eaten have Reddy Woodpecker was astonished.

think of me?" he wanted to know.

"Well, if you're hungry, what do you

And now Cuffy Bear was amazed "You!" he cried. 'Haven't you had good meal? Didn't you eat a grub off just stirred up my appetite."

find even one grub for his share.

grunted

back.

couldn't believe it. There must be something queer about that story, somewhere. At last he asked Cuffy Bear her daughter, Miss Gladys Wright, a a blunt question "You say you ate one," he observed. "One what?"

"Let me see," said Cuffy Bear, "Let iris were effectively arranged. Among those present were Mrs. C. B. King, president; Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. Gordon Philip, Mrs. W. M. Bruce, Mrs.

Helen d'Avignon, Mrs. E. E. Reid, Miss McCall. Miss Laura Macdonald, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Chute, Miss Bessie Mc-Camus, Miss Edith Wynne-Pryce, Miss J. Elliott, Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, Mrs.

At a special meeting of the Loch Lo mond Chapter, I. O. D. E., held this week at Mrs. B. J. Dunlevy's home on Quebec street, arrangements were made time — if you use the Certo ever method.

CERT

UIT PECT

CER

The fruity flavor and delicate color is not boiled away or destroyed but stays in, giv-ing the most delicious jam or jelly you ever tasted-just the right consistency. It's really and truly a revelation-and so very easy to accomplish.

Try the Certo way. You will succeed the first and every time. Free booklet of recipes with every bottle. At your grocer's.

How to make delicious Pineapple Jam

4 level cups (2 lbs.) Crushed or Chopped fruit. 8 leveled cups (3½ lbs.) Sugar. 1 bottle (scant cup) Certo.

Use fully ripened fruit for finest flavor. Put prepared fruit through food chopper, or chop fine. Measure crushed or chopped fruit into large kettle. Add sugar, mix well, stir hard and constantly, and bring to a vigorous boil over hottest fire. Boil hard 1 full minute with continual stirring. Take from fire, add Certo, and stir it in well. Skim, and pour quickly.

Douglas Packing Co., Limited, Cobourg Selling Agents: W. G. Patrick & Co., Limited, Toronto and Montreal

she desires a clinging face powder. For the sports! For the automo

wders PARFUM Vanishing Cream Rouge · Lipstick · Cold Cream · Toilet Water

ETA.

SUMMER BAZAAR. The members of the "I Serve" Club, hall for their summer bazaar, which will MRS. J. H. FAWCETT take place on the 1st and 2nd of June. The hall will be decorated with spring St. Catharines, Ont .- "I took Dr. somewhat unique in that it will special- pectancy, when I felt especially in need McIntyre, Mrs. A. G. Calder, Mrs. S. L. ize on articles suitable for summer, of a tonic, and it benefited me greatly and others. for bathing caps, veranda runners and this 'Prescription' to young mothers be-various delightful necessities for camp-ers. For the bazaar, which is being them."—Mrs. J. H. Fawcett, 8 Beach given on a large scale, the following street. committees will be in charge: Tea room, Mary Granger; homemade cook- you. It's easily improved. Just ask ing, Edna Woods; children's booth, your nearest druggist for this Prescrip-

Upbuilds and sustains the body No Cooking or Milk required Billyea; trousseau table, Lois Laboratory, in Bridgeburg, Ont., for this morning for Quebec, where he will attend the Canadian Street Railways convention. Mrs. Tait accompanies her and Mrs. Roland; decorations, Mrs. Jo. husband as far as Ottawa, where she Cake. . . . will spend a week with Mrs. Robert Mrs. T. A. Wright entertained at a charming tea yesterday afternoon at her home in Queen's avenue in honor of Mr. and, Mrs. Edmund Webb, of the popular June bride-elect. The house

Ontario Hospital, entertained the choir was delightfully arranged with many of St. Mark's to a delightful progressive dark red peonies and graceful spears bundas street. Spring flowers formed and feathery masses of bridal wreath the attractive decorations. Following on the teatable in the dining-room.

ROBERT J. BROWNLEE. MILVERTON, May 30 .-- On Sunday morning, Millbank lost a highly respected citizen in the death of Robert J. Brownlee in his 85th year. He was an honored member and official in the Methodist church.

WILLOW HALL

oods coming in

Greatly reduced prices on every

LOCH LOMOND DANCE.

garment, to make room for summer daily. See us before buyingand save money.

Here Miss Wright's grandmother, William Whitehall, presided, with Miss Eunice Freeland, who is to be the bridesmaid at the wedding, and Miss Ina Colerick, who is to play the wedding march, as gracious assistants. Some 25 guests were present to offer greetings and good wishes to the bride-Following the Y. W. C. A. conference at the Wellington street residence yesterday afternoon the association mem-

440 CLARENCE STREET. SALAD BOWLS In gayly colored Japanese pottery. y

J. H. Cameron, Mrs. C. E. Keene, Miss Hilda Keene, Mrs. John Crawford, Miss

bers were guests of Miss Sutherland at afternoon tea, served in the long livingroom, where fragrant clusters of white

FISHBEIN'S No Cooking or Milk required Used for <sup>1</sup>/<sub>3</sub> of a Century, Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price. No Cooking or Milk required Used for <sup>1</sup>/<sub>3</sub> of a Century, Talbot. Elia McGugan; trousseau table, Lois Laboratory, in Diageourg, onto the Memorial Children's Hospital. Mrs. Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalias Write Dr. Pierce, President Invalias Memorial Children's Hospital. Mrs. Dunlevy will act as convener, and will be assisted by a committee of the whole medical advice.—Advt. Memorial Children's Hospital. Mrs. London's Old Favorite Store. 254 DUNDAS STREET

