Ye're a' welcome hame tae corgraun' jubilee The auld toun, nae doot, ye are longin' tae see, There's nae spot, ye ken, just as dear on the earth As ane's native lan' an' the place o' their birth.

Ye're a' welcome hame, frae the east an' the west, Auld freens an' auld faces, are kindest an' best, Frae north or frae sooth, o'er the ocean sae wide Tried freendships nae distance or time can divide.

Ye're a' welcome hame, gin the road has been long, Or roogh, come awa, we will greet ye' wi' song; There's muckle ye ken i' the grip o' a haun,' Or smile frae a freen, wha can weel understaun'.

Ye're a' welcome hame, there's a wide open door.

We're waitin' sae gladly tae greet ye' today,
Come, visit the scenes that in memory shine
The freens an' the haunts' an' the days o' lang syne.
