Wm. Burpee Hudson and Moody Lorne recently, spending a very merry Xmas with Mrs. Arthur Neaves, of this place.

A very enjoyable Christmas Eve was spent at the hall, where the ladies of the sewing circle held a Christmas tree. A large number were present, including several from Hampton and adjoining sections. The sum of $14.00 was realized from the sale of Christmas goods. Proceeds to be used for church purposes.

The grim messenger has again entered our quiet village, claiming as his victim Mrs. Albert Wilkins. The deceased had been ill but six days, of pneumonia, during which time she was a great sufferer, until death released her. Her son, Kenneth, had arrived from sea the day previous to her demise, intending spending a merry Xmas at home, but the illness of his mother was so serious that he was obliged to take place on Tuesday, with intent at this place. A husband, seven sons and two daughters are left to mourn their loss. We extend our deepest sympathies to the relatives and friends of the deceased.

A very interesting event took place on Tuesday evening at the home of our popular miller, Mr. Thos. Sabean, when his daughter, Mrs. Jane Neaves, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Guest, ship carpenter, of Parker's Cove. The bride looked charming, dressed in a becoming suit of brown tulle, trimmed with brown watered silk and rare old lace, and carried a bouquet of artemisia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. B. Kinley. The "boys" of the village turned out on music and saluted the happy couple, and in return were generously treated to refreshments by the parents of the bride. After wishing the happy pair a long and prosperous wedded life all departed to their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Guest will reside in Parker's Cove.

(From another correspondent.)

Christmas at the Charitable Institutions at Bridgetown.

Doubtless comparatively few of our people in this grand and good old county of Annapolis understand or realize what Christmas means to the seventy-five unfortunate who are so comfortably housed and cared for in our charitable institutions at Bridge-town.

Contrast the condition of these people to-day with the days of the "Town Meeting," when the poor were auctioned off in some public place, and their comfort and welfare for the next twelve months entrusted to the tender mercies of the lowest bidder, and their condition to-day in such homes as are provided by the municipality. Poor and harmless inmates are cared for and their every want supplied by painstaking and careful and competent people.

The dinner on Christmas Day in the Almshouse consisted of roast goose, roast fresh pork, roast chicken, vegetables of all kinds, and a dessert of plum pudding.

In the afternoon at three o'clock a treat, consisting of oranges, candy, nuts, etc., was provided. A large part of this was contributed by the kind people of Bridgetown. A liberal donation from Warden Fitch is deserving of special mention, and was divided equally between the two houses.

A sister state of this sort existed at the same time in the asylum, with the exception that the treat was handed out by the Sisters of Charity. The keeper and matron provided a Christmas tree and set it up in the large sitting room occupied by the male inmates, and both the room and tree looked very nice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have only been in charge a short time, but a look through the institution is proof that they understand the care and management of the inmates.

The keeper and matron of the almshouse, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, are well known in the county, having been in charge now over seven years, and have proven themselves equal to any and every emergency, and I think I am well within the bounds of truth when I say that to them is due in a large measure the fact that the county of Annapolis can boast of one of the best kept almshouses in the maritime provinces. In conclusion I would suggest to the representatives of this county that they take a look into our charitable institutions at Bridgetown. V. G. H.

HYMENEAL.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parker, of District Division, S. of T., will be married on Thursday, Jan. 7th, at 2.30 p. m. Divisions are asked to elect representatives.

Delegates returning by rail will be returned free of charge if ten or more attend, by asking for a standard certificate, obtainable from any station the D. A. R.

HARRY G. PARKER.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fraser, of Prince George, N. S., Tuesday morning, Dec. 22nd, when their only daughter, Flora Blanche, was united in marriage to E. Forrest Connell, of Bridgetown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Hadden Belmont, in the presence of a few intimate friends of the contracting parties. The happy bride looked charming in a gown of white tulle, and the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and later they left to take the train for Bridgetown, their future home, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

Note: Mr. and Mrs. Connell have settled in the house recently purchased from Mr. Charles Lewis.

CLARKE-STEVENS.

Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward Goodwin, 196 King street east, Rev. G. N. Stevenson, formerly in charge of the Colburg street Christian church, was united in marriage to Miss Louisa Clarke. The wedding was a very quiet family affair, only a few relatives and friends being present. Rev. Ralph Gibson performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, was attired in a prime colored broadcloth dress, with a pink travelling hat. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson left on the night train for Halifax, where they will spend a few days before going to their winter home in L'Etete, where the reverend gentleman will have charge of the local church—St. John Telegraph.

Note: The bride spent some weeks here this autumn as milliner at Miss Chute's, and has many friends, who will be glad to extend congratulations and best wishes.

BASKET BALL.

The opening of the Annapolis County Basketball League, at Lawrenceport, on Christmas night, was very satisfactory. A large party of basketball enthusiasts went up from Bridgetown in spite of the muddy roads. A number of the Lawrenceport boys were also present.

A large number of the Lawrenceport enthusiasts were present and enjoyed the games very much, being well satisfied with the showing their teams made in the first game.

The first game of the evening was an exhibition one, by two selected teams, one from Bridgetown, captained by Jas. Young, the other, from Lawrenceport, captained by C. Longley. This game, though rough, fit times, was an interesting one.

The second, which was the league game, was by far the best of the two. It was between the "Tartars," of the Lawrenceport factory and Horton Phinney's team. The Lawrenceport boys were attired in scarlet shirts and black pants, while the Tartars wore the Y. M. C. A. uniform suit of black trousers and gray trousers.

During the first half of the game the Lawrenceport boys easily had the best of the passing and shooting game, but could not seem to cage the ball. In the last half the "Tartars" took a brace and did better work. The game resulted in a victory for the Tartars, by a score of 19-12. Frank Wheelock, of Annapolis, and Mrs. Young, of Middleton, acted as officials, and gave good satisfaction.

The next league games will be played in Bridgetown on New Year's Eve, when the two teams from Lawrenceport will meet, the "Clarks" and "Bankers" teams of Bridgetown.

Mission Band Entertainment.

The literary entertainment given by the Clarence Mission Band on Friday afternoon, the 18th inst., was profitable and entertaining. After this part of the program was carried out, the band was treated to confectionery and cakes by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson.

Next came a pleasant surprise, when Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were presented with a handsome parlor lamp, and 19th president, Mrs. S. N. Jackson, a downy fancy plate.

The recipients wish to express their sincere thanks to all who helped to make this happy occasion one long to be remembered.

Hay Making at Port Hood.

The "Mining Record," reports that the output of coal at Port Hood is keeping up and the management expect a large output for November. The Record says "that the Port Hood Coal Co. might be induced to sell if they were offered a high enough price for their property. It is doubtful, however, whether any ordinary figure would sufficiently impress the stockholders at present. Port Hood seems to be making hay this fall."

Minor's Liniment cures distemper.

DIED.

GATES.—At Annapolis, Dec. 29th, at 10 o'clock, of pneumonia, Geo. H. Gates, aged 60 years, of the firm of Gates & Co., of Annapolis.

Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. B. S. Whitman and P. Whitman.

CARDS OF THANKS.

I am very pleased to say that the public of Clarence have been very kind to me all through my mail business. They have all used my kind, and I have them. They gave me a lot of things for Christmas that I need to keep to use for the winter, and I will say I am pleased with all the things they gave me. They are just the right things for a mail driver to have. I had also a nice gift from Mr. John Lowe.
