

appeal for charity, was none other than Sebastien Cramoisy himself. Singularly enough, the Quebec reprint of 1858, which professes to follow the copy in the Bibliothèque Nationale (then Imperiale), of Paris, omits the "Privilege," the prefatory epistle of Le Mercier, and the "Lettre" of the Mother Superior,—though that copy is, in fact, perfect. This annual forms no. 126 of Harrisse's Notes, but his title is somewhat faulty.

Collation: Title, with verso blank, 1 leaf; Le Mercier's prefatory epistle, pp. (5); "Table des Chapitres," followed by the "Privilege," p. (1); text of Relation (3 chaps.), pp. 1-47, with verso of p. 47 blank. "Lettre de la Reverende Mere Superieure," consisting of: Special title, with verso blank, 1 leaf; text of letter, pp. 3-12; address to "Messieurs et Dames," p. 13 (not numbered); "Memoire des Choses necessaires," pp. 14-16. Signatures: a in four; A-C, plus A in eights. No mispaging.

This annual is very rare, and is lacking in most of the special collections of which we have knowledge; neither O'Callaghan nor Murphy had a copy. Copies have been sold or priced as follows: Harrassowitz (1882), no. 44 (a fine large copy with the "Lettre"), priced at 150 marks; Lenox copy, purchased from the estate of Dr. George H. Moore in 1893, for $100; and Dufossé (with the "Lettre"), priced in 1893 at 400 francs. In our opinion, these prices are quite moderate. Copies are to be found in the following libraries: Lenox, perfect; Brown (private), without the "Lettre;" Kalbfleisch (private), the Harrassowitz copy; Laval University (Quebec), perfect; Bibliothèque Ste. Geneviève (Paris), perfect; and Bibliothèque Nationale (Paris), perfect.
