

that they may organize such form of Government as may be for their interest. The Chiefs of each tribe to become the delegates from their number, and this to be every three years.

4. That all white people who travel through this reserved land, must travel with a special license from the Agent of the American Government who may reside here. And, that all the white people who may reside as Government officers, missionaries and school teachers, must reside by such license, to be issued once a year; and all who have no license, must be looked upon as intruders.

5. That a court of law be instituted, composed half of white people and half of Indians, who shall decide all grievances between the two races, the Indian and the pale face, instead of harassing the Government with them.

6. That the gathering of the Indians be voluntary on their part, and by giving them inducements, they need not be compelled by arbitrary means to leave their own lands.

7. That a military post be placed near the centre of the Indian Territory, and manned, to give security to individuals who may travel or reside there; but more to keep off the white savages, who deal in fire water.

8. That the Indian Government be represented in
