WANTED by a middled aged man of good connections the Agency of a Life Insurance Co.-Address, Life,
P. O. Box 885,

Antidutr Office.

The Antidote, as its name implies, is intended to brush away the cobwels, so to speak, which usually collect durlng the week in the minds of all who are occupied with business or houschold duties. One day out of the seven has been wisely set apart, from time immemorial, for rest, which means for those engaged, more or less, in mental arocations,- - change in hought or something which breaks the monotony necessarily connected witi the ordinary routine of labour.
To accomplish this "The Anitlote" will please everybody and thus upset the fable of the old man. his son ind their ass. It will strive to call a smile to the lips of those who have laid a tired or anxious head upon their Saturday night's pillow, by comic quips pieked up from every quarter. It will al so strive to cheer the sick anil stimulate the healthy, by light literature, which will be a recreation rather thay $a$ study, and will not forget the "fair ministering angels," without whom existence would be a dreary blank, but will devote a space to fashions and social events, to gladden their dear sparkllag rese. Neithre will our rouns "dudes," or the "bucks" of former dass, be neglected, for the thentres will have a corner set agart for their productions, and an occasional peep at Sherbrooke strect. on Saturday and Sunday afternoons will not lie omitted, while harmless society nens, far removed from objectionable scandal, will oe retalled for those who take a kinc'ly (not venomous) interest in their neichiors. "In short," as the immortal Wikins Micawber would ses, no stone will the left unturned to :anke the paper pleasing and attractive.
Thou'h "The Antidote'" will be chiefly a local paper, mainly dealing with events taking place round about us, it will not cschew culling the honey from flowers in other fields, but may dip now and then into New York, lieep a waberul eye upon Chicago or San Francisco, and even once in a while draw pictureu from that wondrous castern cllme, recently rendered so enchanting by the pen of Mr. Rudyard Kipling.
Its Hhustrations whil be among the brightest features of "The Antidote", and no pains will be spared to make them both pretty and attractive.
In conclusion "The Antidote" will be a famlly paper in the true sense of the term, and, in trusting it may call forth many a hearty and wholesome laugh, nothing shall be printed in its columns which will bring a blush to the check of any mother or daughter among-its readers.
The low price of one dollar per ar. num will place the paper within the reach of everyone, the object being not only to give our subseribers a good, but also a popuiar publication.
