

REFORMATION IN TRADE.

Reform, reform is the cry of the day,
While old fashioned habits are passing away.
While old customs have triumphed, so plainly 'twill seem,
Or the old-fashioned method of putting by steam.
Let us glance at Toronto, which a few years ago,
Was dark muddy York, as you very well know.
And see it to-day midst our cities the boat,
And lessorously styled, the Queen of the West.

Just look, if you please, at its elegant homes,—
Its beautiful churches, their spires and their domes.
While its fine public buildings, erected with taste,
Adorn the site of some old marshy waste.

Its marshes have fled by the aid of our drains,
Its forests are open'd by the speed of our trains.
The past we have seen, the present we see;
Well, well, we may ask, what the future will be.

Even now, where the waves of Ontario's trout,
And dash their white spray on the long-bent shore,
This spot so long sacred does science invade,
And the billows give place to a grand Esplanade.

But reforms as important as those have been made,
Which greatly have altered the aspect of trade.
Old styles and old habits, old prices have past,
And customs much better are practised at last.

The BOYNTON for instance, which a few years ago
Would cost you a dollar and a quarter, or so.
A much finer style you now may procure,
For less than one-fourth of that sum, I am sure.

Nor did you then think that the terms were hard,
If you bought a good print for a shilling per yard.
But now you may purchase for half of that price,
A cloth quite as good, and a style just as nice.

Will you call at McDONALD'S? if it is but to try,
From his well-arranged Stock how cheap you can buy,
And we venture to say, when you look through his Store,
You will wonder you never have found it before.

'Tis a three story house, with the front painted white,
Which makes its appearance both graceful and light,
With very large figures, which you plainly may see,
Describing its number as ONE HUNDRED AND THREE.

To Farmers & the Country Generally.

The undersigned, at No. 3, Elgin Building, Yonge Street, beg to inform the country generally, that they have made arrangements with Messrs. Rapier and Co., of Rochester, to act as agents for their various kinds of Agricultural Implements, &c. &c. similar to those which exhibited so successfully at our Provincial Exhibition, also, for their GARDEN, FIELD and FLOWER SEEDS, all of which are of the latest production.

Farmers wishing to keep pace in the scale of progress, and at the same time save some of the unnecessary labour they have heretofore had, will find it to their advantage to call and examine the implements for themselves.

The sun-dials will also here be had—a new and a supply of Caking Stones, Paper and Pen Staves, Cox's Grease, &c. together with an assortment of General Hardware, which they will be prepared to sell as low as any other house in the city.

Remember the place No. 3, Elgin Building, Yonge Street, General Agricultural Warehouse, under Mackenzie's
"Weekly Message Office." MCINTOSH & WALTON
