14. WINTER IN INDIA. By the Right Hon. W. E. BAXTER, M.P. Price 15 cents.
This is the last and the best of a number of most charming books of travel by the Hon. Mr. Baxter, who took many journeys in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America. By the aid of this book we can accompany him through his winter tour in India. He introduces us to strange scenes, curious incidents, peculiar alone to India, and obtains for us a vast fund of information and facts concerning a country, which is likely to call upon itself more notice from the world than any other country on earth. Its great antiquity, its vast resources of wealth of various kinds, and its ancient lore, make it unrivalled. England and America, both their merchants and scholars, especially, must ever be deeply and more deeply interested in India.
