

done. Though there were some who gave out of their abundance, yet many cheerfully gave to the Lord, as the poor widow in the gospel, nearly all they possessed." This we call again an example for us.—Missionary Token.

MISSIONARY ZEAL AND LIBERALITY OF SOUTH-SEA ISLANDERS.

In no island of the South Seas has the great change which the Gospel makes been more clearly shown than in Aitutaki. And, like many other converted Polynesians, the Aitutakians have been most liberal. This was strikingly shewn in 1854.