Subscriptions are daily sent in to the Reverend Sisters of Charity of St Boniface for the construction of their new hospital. Lieutenant Governor Aikins, Mayor Westbrook, Donald A. Smith and many others whose names will shortly be published, are among the generous and distinguished donors. We once more call upon all to contribute towards this charitable institution.

Another large area of the Govrenment grounds has been sown with lawn grass army. seed, and in a few days a green sward will adorn the entire Broadway front of Parliament Square. The trees planted last year, as well as this spring, are al growing nicely and will in a few years enhance the already fine grounds that surround the Parliament Building. Few Capitals can boast of finer grounds than those of the Metropolis of Manitoba.

In the Local House, Mr. Conklin moved his motion setting forth the desirability of sending a represettative of this province to the Colonial Exhibition, and also expessing the opinion that the House believed Captain William Clark was the in England, and, also, upon the peculiar, succeeding in carrying off several pazes fitness of Capt Clark for the position Over five hundred dollars were at the Hon. Mr. LaRiviere said he had urged the Captain's appointment upon the Dominion Government, and he trusted he would soon receive orders to proceed to London. Mr. Lescock thought the motion out of order, as it involved expenditure The speaker ruled one portion out and Mr. Conklin refused to press the other and so the matter dropped.

By an act respecting the Crown Lands belonging to Manitoba just introduced in the Local Legislature, it is provided that the lands shall be administered by one of the cabinet ministers, who shall also be called the Crown Lands Commissioners, or a separate officer who shall be known by the same title. Provision is made for granting 160 acre homestead to intending settlers. Every such homestead settler shall be entitled to be absent from his land for any period not exceeding two months during the year. If absent continuously for a longer period than that he shall be held to have forfeited his land. If absent more than four months in the aggregate each year, the land shall be held to have been abandoned. If a number of persons not exceeding four unite in partnership they can preempt as a farm, an area to the extent of 160 acres for each partner, Each partner shall represent his interest in the firm by actual residence, but it shall not be necessary in that case for him to reside on his particular pre emption. They may reside together on a upon some portion of the area pre-emp tion, by the firm.
