

SECTION NINE: IDENTIFYING PUBLIC SECTOR OPPORTUNITIES 50

- 9.1 Federal Government - The EPA 52
- 9.2 Federal Government - The Department of Defence 54
- 9.3 Federal Government - The Department of Energy 54
- 9.4 State Governments 55
- 9.5 Muncipal Governments 57

SECTION TEN: USING YOUR EXISTING CONTACT BASE 59

- 10.1 Foreign Companies with Canadian Investments 59
- 10.2 Canadian Companies with American Investments 60
- 10.3 Other Private Firms 61
- 10.4 U.S. Companies and Canadian Government Offsets 63
- 10.5 Canadian Governments 64
- 10.6 Industry Associations and Lobby Groups 65
 - 10.6.1 Service Industry Organizations
 - 10.6.2 Manufacturing, Resource and Other Organizations
 - 10.6.3 Environmental Groups

SECTION ELEVEN: BENEFITTING FROM EXPERIENCE: CASE STUDIES 68

SECTION TWELVE: U.S. VIEWPOINTS: PRIVATE AND PUBLIC SOURCES 73

- 12.1 Advice from U.S. Manufacturers 73
 - 12.1.1 Purchasing Process
 - 12.1.2 Selection Criteria
 - 12.1.3 Perceptions of Canadian Capabilities
 - 12.1.4 Spending Trends
- 12.2 Other American Sources 76
 - 12.2.1 Engineering Consulting Firms
 - 12.2.2 Utilities
 - 12.2.3 Universities
 - 12.2.4 Municipalities
 - 12.2.5 State Governments

SECTION THIRTEEN: ADVICE FROM CANADIAN SOURCES 79

- 13.1 Advice from Trade Commissioners 79
- 13.2 Advice from Ernst & Young 80

LIST OF APPENDICES

- Appendix A: Canadian Government Assistance
- Appendix B: Canadian Government's U.S. Environmental Priority Activities for 1993/94
- Appendix C: Useful Documents
- Appendix D: Leading Engineering and Environmental Firms in the United States
- Appendix E: State Government Environmental Expenditures