

- provision of a central advisory service to departments and agencies concerning financial and accounting policies and principles, together with provision of uniform authoritative interpretations of financial-administrative legislation, policies and guidelines;
- the development and maintenance, in conjunction with the Public Service Commission, of professional training programs for financial officers in the federal Public Service.

1962
C11 E43 S13 FNS
1968
The Treasury Board of Canada
3758341