

D. CARGILL SOUTHAM
1070 BLEURY STREET
MONTREAL

March 23rd 1938.

Dear Dr. Douglas:

Anent the conversation that took place last evening at dinner, and the views privately expressed by yourself, I believe the enclosed poem illustrating a certain point of view will not be amiss.

I dislike intensely anything of an anonymous nature, but the enclosed diatribe seems to hit the mark.

Yours very sincerely,

Cargill Southam

Principal L.W. Douglas,
McGill University,
Montreal, Quebec.