

affection and gratitude for the General who delivered our loved city. On a former occasion I sent you a copy of my volume, L'Évolution de Canada-français, but with the dedication, the misleading mark of a check of Plon, eliminated, because it was incorrect, too prosaic and it demoralized me. I send you this day a copy of the same book with a corrected dedication to cover the faulty one.

Wishing you continued success in the dear Alma Mater, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

Jean-Charles Bray