

that my efficiency as a teacher + investigator was finished. I had no thought of the future, for I expected that my Carnegie pension would be at the rate of $1800⁰⁰ a year, but when I returned I found that I was receiving only $35⁵³ per month, and presume was exchange at par it would be even less. Neither the university nor the bank had notified me of this, so I was much surprised. Had I sufficient private means, I would not mind, but the present situation does impoverished my slender resources.
