

THE LAND OF PROMISE.

those who give information in relation to fields for immigration, that the emigrant is apt to take a somewhat optimist view of everything the fact that he proposes to settle in the North-west himself—very valuable; and we commend his statements, with great confidence, to our readers.