

	PAGE.		PAGE.
U.S. fishery vessels in the bay of		Distrust of the French Canadians
Chaleurs	199	arising from British immigration	226
Road to New Brunswick	199	Objection to introduction of French
Indian discontent with terms of		priests	227
treaty	200	Montgolfier head of Montreal
La Fayette returns to United		seminary	227
States	202	Appeal to governor to admit
Indian grant on Grand river	203	French priests	228
Indian grant at bay of Quinté	203	Refusal of request	228
Census 1784 detail	204	Appeal on the subject to England.	229
		The Habeas Corpus	229
CHAPTER V.		Its effect on those bound by reli-
[1784.]		gious vows	230
The U.E. loyalists	206	Attempt to make public the
The loyalists after the peace	206	sittings of council	231
Those under arms in the war	207	De Luzerne applies to visit
Carleton at New York	207	Canada	231
His admirable conduct on aban-		Death of Saint Luc de la Corne	232
doning the city	208	Finlay's description of province	232
Legislation after the peace	208	Haldimand's departure	233
Strength of party opposed to the		His character	233
revolution	209	The injustice to his memory	234
Anger against loyalists	210	Petition for change in constitu-
The colonial system	211	tion	235
Persecution of the loyalists	212	Petition of U.E. loyalists	235
Bouquet's services in 1763	213	Lieutenant governor Hamilton	236
Confiscation in Massachusetts	214	Hamilton's want of judgment	237
Those engaged in smuggling most		His difficulties with Haldimand	238
active in the revolution	214	Division of civil and military duties	239
The clauses protecting the loyalists	214	St. Leger in command	240
Debate on the treaty	215	"The dark days"	240
The loyalists in London	216	Retirement of Mgr. Briand	241
Measures for their relief	217	Mgr. Hubert appointed coadjutor	242
Loyalists in Canada	217	Ira Allen applies for free trade
Disbandment of provincial regi-		with Vermont	243
ments	218	Changes of practice in law and
Settlement of townships	219	surveying	243
The foundation of present province		Canadian timber	243
of Ontario	220	Routes to lake Simcoe considered	243
Settlement in Nova Scotia	221	Winter mail to Halifax	244
Extent of loyalist settlement	222	Hamilton's recall	245
The term U.E. loyalist	223	Petition against corvées for forwarding western supplies	245
CHAPTER VI.		The attack on the military admin-
[1784-1786.]		istration	246
Feeling in Canada after the peace	225	Sustained by Hamilton	246
Sentiment towards France	225	Hope and St. Leger intervene	247

Hope appointed
ernor
Commission
at Sydney
Regulations
Private vessel
Thomas Ca
New Br
Death of H
William Sn
justice

BOOK X

Arrival of C
chester .
Receives sep
the sever
William Sm
justice .
His theories
Petition to th
Monk's state
the law .
The commiss
procedur
Dorchester di
into distr
Visits loyalist
British popul
Dorchester r ration of Monk remove attorney
Influence of r
The Apalachi barrier to ship
Dissatisfaction
Descent by Mi Geographical lake Cha
Silas Deane's
canal .
Arrival of pri
[William