

the world knew." Indeed there is no shade of idea in respect to time, place, and manner of action which the verbs of these languages cannot express.

The existence of the laws of language by which order, beauty, strength and expressiveness are seen in the internal structure of every form of speech, the unknown operation of some of these laws, and the mysteries of speech and language which lie hidden from the human mind, manifest supreme intelligence. The discoveries made in this realm of knowledge corroborate the previous evidences of Divine wisdom. The languages of the world are another revelation of Him who made all things for Himself, and in them we find another argument for the existence of a wise, beneficent and loving God
