

them to-day, they hope for better luck to-morrow ;
if they cannot lord it over a corn-hill, they will sit humbly at its foot and accept what comes ;
in all cases they make the most of their opportunities."

THE END.